Eight Men of Cork Arrested As About to Go to England

Wore "Irish Republican Army" Uniforms Under Ordinary Garb; Police Investigate If They Intended to Do Violence Following Macswiney's Death.

Dublin, Oct. 26.—Eight men, said to be residents of Cork, were arrested last evening as they were about to sail for England and the police are investigating whether they were merely going to the funeral of the late Lord Mayor Macswiney or whether there is a possibility that they intended to avenge his death.

Each wore the uniform of the "Irish Republican Army" under his ordinary garb and one carried four disguises. None of them was armed.

Macswiney Funeral.

London, Oct. 26.—Announcement of plans for the removal to Ireland of the body of Terence Macswiney, late Lord Mayor of Cork, who died yesterday morning in Brixton prison, was expected to-day.

It was understood that final decision on whether the body would be taken secretly to Cork or would be turned over to relatives here, was left to the administration at Dublin Castle.

Press Comments.

Articles on the death of Macswiney occupied much space in newspapers regardless of their political views. Some refrained from commenting editorially on the situation which has arisen, while others have written in accordance with their customary attitudes on the Irish question.

The Times, which is hostile to the Government's Irish policy and the Irish Bill prepared by the Cabinet, severely attacks the Government, especially in the matter of reprisals. Referring specifically to Macswiney, the newspaper expresses fear that the effects of his death will not be confined to the British Isles.

No Relation.

Asserting the Lord Mayor was a "misguided but sincere patriot dying for his convictions," The Morning Post says:

"We cannot perceive what relation can exist between suicide and martyrdom. We cannot forget the many loyal servants of their country who have been shot down in the mere performance of their duty in Ireland and for whose memory there is no meritorious appeal nor fallacious sentimentality."

The Daily News says the Government imprisoned Macswiney as a criminal and converted him into a martyr and must bear responsibility for his death.

"Every day," the newspaper declares, "Ireland is being welded more surely and more irresistibly by the Premier and his armies into a nation that will not be conquered."

Herald's View.

"The murder of Macswiney by the Government," says The Herald, organ of Labor, "was accomplished after slow torture for seventy-four days."

The Telegraph defends the Government and pleads in behalf of the victims of the campaign of assassination in Ireland.

"If justice had surrendered to the threat of suicide," remarks the Express, "the law would have been mocked and order undone."

No Interference.

London, Oct. 26.—Inquiries which have been made of members of the family on behalf of the Government regarding the arrangements for the funeral of the late Lord Mayor Macswiney, of Cork, have been interpreted by Father Dominic, the late Lord Mayor's private chaplain, as an indication that there will be no interference with the family's plans and that the body will be turned over to them immediately after the inquest. This, the Home Office states, will be held Wednesday morning.

EQUAL DIVISION OF RAW MATERIAL

Foreign Minister of Italy Says Monopolies Must Be Abolished

Brussels, Oct. 26.—Former Foreign Minister Tittoni of Italy, speaking to correspondents about his report on monopolies presented at the meeting of the Council of the League of Nations yesterday, said:

"We must have economic unity or we will have a Third Internationale or Russian Communism.

"Monopolies must be abolished or the working classes will be driven further toward revolution.

"All raw materials must be placed at the disposal of the whole world on an equal basis; all artficial hindrances to production must be removed."

Signor Tittoni also declared in favor of the freest possible trading between nations.

ROYAL BANK HAD SUCCESSFUL YEAR

Montreal, Oct. 26.—The directors of the Royal Bank of Canada have declared a special bonus of two per cent., payable on December 15 to shareholders of record of November 30. This will make a total declaration of 14 per cent. for this year.

In speaking of the bonus, Sir Herbert Holt, the president, stated that the bank had experienced the best year in its history.

LADY RHONDDA WISHES SEAT IN HOUSE OF LORDS

London, Oct. 26. — Viscountess Rhondda, a peeress in her own right, has petitioned King George to issue a writ summoning her to serve in the House of Lords. Peeresses in their own right, of whom there are about twenty-five, have all the dignities and privileges of peers except that of sitting in the House of Lords. Lady Rhondda claims recent legislation equalizes the sexes.

This is the first time a peeress has sought admission to the Upper House of Parliament.

VIOLENCE GOES ON IN IRELAND

More Deaths Reported in Troubled Island; a Fight in Belfast

Galway, Ireland, Oct. 26.—Thomas Egan, keeper of a public house at Athenry, was shot and killed at his home Sunday night by raiders after the latter had accused him of complicity in the murder of Frank M. Shaw, a Galway magistrate, last March.

In Belfast.

Belfast, Oct. 26.—Further rioting occurred in this city last night. Large crowds burned effigies of Terence Macswiney, the late Lord Mayor of Cork, in a street and a nearby party, mistaking the effigies for those of Premier Lloyd George, started exchanges with men burning the figures.

A fight was soon going on and, the police being powerless, troops were summoned. Several shots were fired by the soldiers and order was soon restored.

John Macleod was shot and killed yesterday during a fight caused by the display of Sinn Fein flags. The clash occurred in the east end of the city.

In Dublin.

Dublin, Oct. 26.—Three men were shot and killed by masked men who were alleged to be wearing khaki uniforms here yesterday. The shooting occurred in the Thurles district, one of the victims being registrar of the local arbitration court. Michael Ryan, another of the victims, was shot while lying in bed, where he had been suffering from pneumonia for a week.

It is reported a political prisoner incarcerated in Mount Joy prison is dead. The identity of the man was not announced.

Panic in Cork.

Cork, Oct. 25.—(Associated Press).—Crowds along the Grand Parade, one of the principal thoroughfares of this city, were thrown into a panic to-night when several shots were fired from a military lorry and an accompanying armored car. So far as known there were no casualties.

It appears that the car had turned its searchlight in the Sinn Fein Clubhouse and a large number of people, led by curiosity, surrounded the machine. The occupants, fearing an attack, fired and the crowds scattered. Subsequently the streets were almost deserted.

Armed men at Blarney flagged the mail train from Cork to-day and searched the cars.

LIQUOR BARRED AFTER SIXTY DAYS

Prairie Provinces and Nova Scotia Decide Against Importation

Majorities Range From 30,000 in East to 8,700 in Alberta

Four Provinces in Canada voted "dry" yesterday. They were Nova Scotia, Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta.

Nova Scotia showed a majority against importation of liquor and its manufacture of over 30,000.

Manitoba rolled up a majority of 15,000.

Saskatchewan was somewhat closer, about 10,000 votes separating the forces.

Alberta this morning showed a majority favoring Sahara principles of 8,763.

Halifax was the only exception in the maritime province, casting a handsome majority for a "wet" regime.

Winnipeg also went "wet" by 6,393. So did St. Boniface.

Regina by a small majority voted "wet," but Saskatoon and Moose Jaw by narrow majorities went "dry." Prince Albert was anxious for moist conditions.

Edmonton, Calgary and Medicine Hat by 1,300, 452 and 100 majorities respectively, decided for a "dry" state. Lethbridge by 216 went the other way.

Farmers For Prohibition.

The day's feature in all the provinces was the verdict of all rural districts for prohibition. Throughout there was not a heavy vote.

Importation of liquor in the four provinces which voted "dry" will still be possible for a period of at least sixty days. Provision is made in the amendments to the Canada Temperance Act passed last session for the issuance of the necessary proclamations by the Federal Government, but not before a period of sixty days has elapsed after the adoption by a province of the "bone dry" principle.

8,763 Majority.

Edmonton, Oct. 26.—Out of more than 65,000 persons who voted yesterday on the liquor referendum, 37,699 voted yes and 28,936 no, a dry majority in Alberta of 8,763, according to figures compiled by The Edmonton Journal at 10 o'clock this morning.

RUSSIAN CRAFT REPORTED BLOWN UP

Unconfirmed Report Also Says Mercenaries Ended Fighting in Petrograd

London, Oct. 26. — An Exchange Telegraph dispatch to-day from Helsingfors, Finland, reports that two torpedo boats at Kronstadt, the Russian naval base near Petrograd, have been blown up by rioters. It is asserted that sailors were involved in the rioting.

A message also alleges that the Bolshevisti have employed Chinese mercenaries to put down street fighting in Petrograd and Kronstadt.

There is no confirmation of these reports.

POLISH-RUSSIAN PACT RATIFIED BY CENTRAL SOVIET

London, Oct. 26.—Ratification of the preliminary peace treaty between Poland and Bolshevik Russia was voted by the All-Russian Soviet yesterday, according to a wireless message from Moscow.

George Tchitcherin, Bolshevik Foreign Minister, explained the pact, and declared Poland had refused assistance to General Baron Wrangel, head of the anti-Bolshevik Government of South Russia. He also asserted Poland had agreed not to lend aid to forces of reaction in Russia.

50,000 BOLSHEVIKI TAKEN BY MEN OF WRANGEL'S ARMY

Sebastopol, Oct. 26.—Fifty thousand Russian Bolshevik soldiers have been taken prisoners and many cannon and large quantities of war material have been captured in raids carried out by General Wrangel's army recently.

COMMISSION ON MANDATES PLAN OF LEAGUE COUNCIL

Brussels, Oct. 26.—The Council of the League of Nations has decided to appoint a commission on mandates composed of seven members representing mandatories and eight of nationalities that are not mandatories.

Parties Set Dates For Nominating Conventions In Provincial Contest

Organizers in the Liberal interest in Victoria are busily arranging for the work of bringing out the best candidates for the community and have expanded the quarters occupied in the Arcade Building by the addition of five extra rooms. Each of these will be allocated to the workers of one particular ward, and special telephone equipment is now being installed in each room.

The date of the Liberal nominating convention will not be settled until after to-morrow night's session of the executive council of the party. It is intended that the meeting shall start promptly at 8 o'clock, as in addition to setting the date for the big nominating convention a new date for the annual meeting will have to be set.

Originally scheduled for Thursday, October 28, the plan was abandoned after the 600 announcement cards had been sent out because of the unexpectedly early announcement of the dissolution.

After a lapse of months the executive of the Federated Labor Party will meet to-night in the Sayward Building and will consider the political outlook. Rumors as to combinations between the ex-service men and various other interests were stated this morning to be baseless until after to-night's meeting.

The Soldier-Labor Council will hold a regular business meeting to-morrow night in the G. W. V. A. rooms, and there is little doubt but that politics will take a prominent place in the discussion. Here, also, those in touch with the activities of the Council state that any talk of pledges being given to support any line of action or combine with any other bodies is no more than anticipations, and the shadow of matters which quite possibly may be brought up.

Conservative Convention.

The Executive Committee of the Conservative Party will hold an important meeting in the Arcade Building rooms on Thursday evening, when confirmation will be asked for plans now made for the calling of the nominating convention for Thursday, November 4, at the Alexandra Club.

Interest in the probable action of ex-service men is tinting all conversations on election possibilities. This will come to a head on Thursday next, when the Grand Army of United Veterans will hold a convention to name two representatives on a suggested Farmer-Labor-Soldier ticket.

There is a quite general opinion among ex-service men that there is little chance of any massed backing being behind any one candidate appealing for the returned soldier vote, and a remarkable fact noticeable around ex-service men's clubs is the frequent statement that the men appealing for the franchise who are of the highest calibre will be those favored.

PREMIER TO START TOUR NEXT WEEK

Most of His Ministers Are Already Busy Campaigning

Premier Oliver will go to Vancouver to-night, where he will spend the next two days consulting with various leaders of opinion before the Government's election manifesto is issued here at the end of the week.

The Premier will make no public speeches on this visit to the Mainland. He will return to Victoria on Thursday to complete the manifesto.

At the first of next week the Premier will open his campaign at Golden and speak at Invermere, Fernie, Cranbrook, Creston and Nelson. After completing this tour of the Interior he will return to Victoria and a few days later start out on another. He does not expect to be able to cover more than a fraction of the Province.

Hon. Dr. MacLean To Begin.

With the exception of the Hon. John Hart, whose seat is Victoria, and the Hon. J. D. MacLean, all the Ministers have already begun to scatter themselves over the Province. By to-morrow night it is likely that the Hon. Mr. Hart will be the only Minister here, as the Hon. Dr. MacLean plans to leave on his opening campaign tour to-morrow. He will go to his own constituency of Greenwood for a few days and then spend the rest of two weeks speaking in the Interior. After that he will return to Victoria and from here start out on other speaking trips wherever he may be needed.

All the other Ministers will be returning to Victoria about every ten days or two weeks during the campaign.

HEALTHY STATE OF BUSINESS REPORTED

Dominion Bank Statement For September Shows Deposits Increased

Ottawa, Oct. 26.—(Canadian Press)—A healthy state of business conditions is reflected in the bank statement for September issued by the Finance Department to-day. The assets of Canadian banks, which now stand well over the $3,000,000,000 mark, increased by approximately $70,000,000 as compared with August. Notice deposits increased by about $9,000,000, and demand deposits by about $37,000,000.

No Importations.

Toronto, Oct. 26.—The embargo against the importation of securities from overseas and the sale of Victory Bonds by the Market Committee will be continued for some time yet, according to Sir Henry Drayton, Minister of Finance, who had a conference yesterday afternoon with several leaders of finance on these two questions.

As to the embargo, the Minister intimated that it might be discontinued by February next, if not earlier, and with reference to Victory Bonds, he said he would like them to continue in the hands of the Market Committee a little while longer.

ITALIAN AMBASSADOR.

Rome, Oct. 26.—Senator Rolandi Ricci, according to The Popolo Romano to-day, is to be appointed Italian Ambassador at Washington.

MACKENZIE KING SPEAKS IN REGINA

Urges Farmers, Laborites and Women's Organizations to Join Liberals

Regina, Oct. 26.—Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King addressed two overflowing meetings here last night, one at the Dominion Methodist Church and the other in the Town Hall. Assisting the Liberal Leader were W. C. Kennedy, M.P., William Duff, M.P., and the Hon. W. F. A. Turgeon, Provincial Attorney-General.

Mr. King made an appeal to his audience to strive for a union of the progressive forces of the country against what he described as "the reactionary influences dominating the present administration in Ottawa." These forces, which Mr. King stated have common grounds of agreement in their various platforms publicly adopted, are the Liberal party, the Farmers of the West, the Labor organizations and the organized bodies among the women voters. He alleged that the present attempts to "break up the progressive forces into various opposed groups were inspired by the backers of the National Liberal and Conservative party."

Luncheon.

At noon yesterday Mr. King and the members of his party were entertained at the Assiniboia Club, together with the Hon. W. M. Martin, Premier of Saskatchewan; Hon. George Langley, Minister of Agriculture, who has just returned from the meeting of the National Council of Agriculture, and other members of the Provincial Cabinet.

After the luncheon a round table conference of those present was held, the subjects of discussion being the present relationship of various political forces in the West, with special reference to the movement back to the Liberal party of those members who supported the Union Government in 1917.

SOVIET AGENT IN COURT IN LONDON

Charged As Go-between For Extremists in Britain and Russians

Finding of Letter From Sylvia Pankhurst to Lenine Reported

London, Oct. 26. — Sensational charges were made in Bow Street police court to-day against a mysterious man who, the Government attorney declared, has been acting between members of revolutionary circles in this country and the Russian revolutionists.

The Government attorney said that among the letters found on the accused was one from Sylvia Pankhurst to Nikolai Lenine, Premier of Soviet Russia, saying:

"The situation is most acute; not ready for revolution yet."

The accused declined to answer questions put to him. He was remanded for a week.

PRINCE PAUL AS NEW GREEK KING

Throne Offered to Brother of Alexander, Who Just Died

Athens, Oct. 26. — (Associated Press)—The throne of Greece, made vacant by the death of King Alexander, will be offered to Prince Paul, third son of former King Constantine, it is officially announced.

Difficulties.

Athens, Oct. 26.—(Associated Press)—Many difficulties regarding succession to the Greek throne will result from the death of King Alexander last night. There is every indication the throne will be offered to Prince Paul, third son of former King Constantine, but as a condition King Constantine must formally abdicate and Prince George, older brother of Prince Paul, must renounce his rights.

It is probable that King Constantine will at first refuse to meet these conditians but it is understood Premier Venizelos will produce arguments of some importance.

Pension.

Constantine's financial status is well known and it is the understanding that the Premier will agree to restore the former King's suppressed pension if the above terms are accepted.

Only in the event of Constantine's persistent refusal would there be a question of the establishment of a republic, but it is known Premier Venizelos is of the opinion that Greece is not yet ripe for that form of Government.

There is also a possibility of offering the throne to a foreign prince, but the Premier is reluctant to take such a step.

Members of the Greek Cabinet conferred on Sunday, but decisions reached, if any, have not been made public.

Elections.

Elections at which will be chosen new members of the Greek National Assembly have been postponed a week, it is announced here. They were to have been held on November 8.

Regent.

Athens, Oct. 25.—Admiral P. Coundouriotis, former Minister of Marine, is believed to be the Government official most favored for the appointment as Regent of Greece to hold office until the successor of the late King Alexander ascends the throne. He was formerly a member of the Salonica Government and is known to be friendly to the Entente.

VANCOUVER WANTS DELAYS IN MAILS TO ORIENT REMOVED

Vancouver, Oct. 26.—A memorandum of protest against the delay in the transit of mail to the Orient from Vancouver will be presented to Premier Meighen on his visit to the city, according to a decision of a special committee of the Board of Trade. The special committee considered the question fully yesterday and in view of the unanimous feeling among the merchants in the city decided to press the matter to its utmost.

British Government and Miners Try to Settle Coal Strike

Formal Negotiations Between Government and Miners' Representatives Opened This Morning; Belief Is Basis Will Be Found.

London, Oct. 26.—Formal negotiations between the Government and the executive officers of the Miners' Federation in an effort to settle the coal strike were opened this morning, indicating that the informal discussions which had been in progress since Sunday had proved satisfactory, in some measure at least.

The miners' executive body had previously been in conference over the Government's new proposals and as a result of its deliberations it decided to begin formal negotiations.

It was reported from South Wales to-day that the miners' officials there had before them yesterday the Government's new formula on the wage question, which is said to be based upon coal values. The miners are to get a two shilling a day increase, but the future selling price of coal will depend on production. That is, if production falls below a certain figure the price of coal will be increased to the consumer; otherwise present prices will be maintained.

Under this plan the miners, while receiving more wages, would co-operate with the owners in preventing increased prices.

Much significance was attached to to-day's negotiations, especially in view of Premier Lloyd George's recent statement in the House of Commons that he was loath to call such a conference until a basis had been reached which looked as if it might lead to final negotiatians.

The general belief expressed to-day was that such a basis had been reached.

Emergency.

London, Oct. 26.—Strong opposition to the Government's emergency power bill, giving the administration far-reaching authority in the event of a general strike or of disorders, was anticipated in the House of Commons to-day. The measure entered the committee stage of consideration and the Government issued instructions for all supporters to be present at to-day's session.

In the House last night a motion for rejection of the bill offered by W. C. Adamson, Labor leader, was defeated 257 to 55, and the measure was passed to second reading.

Necessary.

Premier Lloyd George defended the bill. He declared it was not intended as an attack on trade unions, but absolutely necessary to "face the threats of railwaymen and the 'Triple Alliance' to cripple our national life almost without notice."

Further consideration of the bill was prevented as T. P. O'Connor, leader of the Irish Nationalists, obtained permission to begin the debate on Ireland. Mr. O'Connor discussed recent acts of reprisal in the island, but no new points were developed.

TWO MORE CITIZENS OF UNITED STATES KILLED IN MEXICO

Washington, Oct. 26.—Two American citizens, Arthur L. Mosley and Gustave E. Sailer (or Sailer), have been killed in the Tampico oilfield, a dispatch to-day to the State Department said.

The report said the men were killed yesterday afternoon at Vega de Otaites, near Tampico. No details were given.

$20,000 SUIT BY A BELGIAN GIRL

Toronto Law Student Is Defendant, But Makes Counter-claim

Toronto, Oct. 2.. Walter Woods McKeown, of Toronto, a student-at-law, is being sued by Miss Mariette Van Hoorde, of Brussels, Belgium, for $20,000 damages for alleged breach of promise. The defendant was an officer in the army when the pair met overseas, and the plaintiff was engaged in relief work. Miss Van Hoorde alleges that she became engaged to McKeown in April, 1920. She expended $1,000 on her trousseau she states, and she followed her lover to Toronto, the trip costing her $500.

Counter-Claim.

The defendant has filed a counterclaim against the plaintiff for $500 special damages and $1,500 general damages, a Toronto lady being involved in the claim. He alleges that Miss Van Hoorde and the Toronto lady in question conspired against him and carried on a newspaper propaganda for the purpose of injuring him, both before and after the breach of promise action was launched, and Miss Van Hoorde's picture was published in Toronto newspapers, he states, for the purpose of holding him up to public ridicule and contempt. He contends that he is not in a financial condition to marry, as he failed in his final examinations.

ITALIAN TROOPS OCCUPIED TRIESTE

Report d'Annunzio Troops Would Land Proved to Be Unfounded

Rome, Oct. 26.—The city of Trieste was occupied by Italian troops Sunday, according to telegrams from that place to The Corriere d'Italia and The Idea Nazionale.

A report had been circulated that a landing by Gabriele d'Annunzio was imminent, but this did not materialize, d'Annunzio telegraphing from Fiume a denial of any intention to land at Trieste.

General Caviglia assembled the officials of Trieste and appealed to their patriotism, the dispatches add.

FARMERS' STRIKE SENDS WHEAT UP

Prices Ascend at Chicago When Farmers Hold Back Grain

Chicago, Oct. 26. — Wheat prices made a sudden ascent to-day and trade authorities ascribed as one of the reasons a falling off in offerings from the southwest. Apparently due to the 'farmers' strike," an extreme advance of 10¾ cents a bushel took place, December delivery touching $210¼ as against $199½ to $199¾ at yesterday's finish.

The "strike" or stoppage of selling by farmers was announced some time ago by officials of the United States Wheat Growers' Association as against continued cutting down of prices until it was contended the financial returns to growers were below the cost of production. Yesterday was the day set for the "strike" to begin, but no marked effect were noticeable until to-day.

BOLSHEVIKI HOLD BOKHARA CAPITAL

Emir and Followers Reported to Have Fled to Afghanistan

Bombay, India, Oct. 26.—Advices have reached India to the effect that a Bolshevik envoy has occupied the palace of the Emir of Bokhara, and that the Emir and the Governor of Guzar have fled to Afghanistan with 500 followers. Fighting is reported to be in progress in Karki.

Many casualties occurred at the palace as a result of an explosion which occurred while the Bolsheviki were removing the Emir's supplies of munitions.

Bokhara is a vassal state of Russia situated in Central Asia. The city of Bokhara is an important commercial centre.

Preparing For Election In States a Week Hence

New York, Oct. 26.—(Canadian Press)—While the several thousand candidates for various Federal and state offices are devoting the last week of the election campaign to a whirlwind of oratory, election officials are busy preparing for the actual registration of the votes on next Tuesday.

A Federal election in the United States is a vastly more complicated matter than a general election in Canada. In almost every district there are scores of different offices to be filled and the United States voter who casts a ballot for each office must need exercise a good deal of perseverance. Election day is a holiday throughout the United States, so that no voter can plead lack of time to make the various crosses.

In previous elections the hard-boiled party man could avoid the toil of going through the yard or more of ballot by voting a "straight ticket," a place being provided for a cross which indicated his desire to cast his ballot for all candidates of one or

Port Alberni Submits Plan For Liquor Control

Port Alberni, Oct. 26.—The following telegram has been sent to Premier Oliver and Mr. Bowser:

"The Port Alberni Council recommends that under the proposed legislation the municipalities should appoint the dispensers and should retail liquor, retaining the proceeds but purchasing from the Province at wholesale rates, all under provincial supervision. We submit the municipalities are the proper bodies for local management of the liquor business. Our proposal follows the principle of the former Liquor License Act.

"The Council requests your advocacy of this policy, which would simplify municipal financial problems.

NOT POLITICIANS AND RAILWAYMEN TOO

Hanna Makes Attitude of Canadian National Railways Quite Plain

Winnipeg, Oct. 26. — (Canadian Press).—In a statement given out here yesterday, D. B. Hanna, president of the Canadian National Railways, declared that Canadian National Railway employees cannot accept nomination for any political office, and if any should do so they automatically cease to be employees of the road.

In the statement Mr. Hanna outlined the reasons for this decision, which has aroused a storm of protest on the part of employees of the railway, who claim that such an order deprives them of their political rights.

"Considerable discussion seems to have arisen among certain classes of employees of the Canadian National Railways regarding the attitude of the company toward employees seeking Provincial or Federal parliamentary honors," stated Mr. Hanna. "One statement which appears in the newspapers, that something new had been promulgated by the management is denied.

The fact is that so far as the old Canadian National lines are concerned the management then in control had a clear understanding that any officer or employee identifying himself with any party and seeking Parliamentary honors automatically severed his connection with the company. This rule was strictly observed, and the same practice has been extended under the present Board of Directors," added Mr. Hanna.

Officials representing railway employees stated in regard to Mr. Hanna's statement that they would await definite action on the part of the company. The men intend to take no steps for the moment, but will do so immediately word is received that an employee has been dismissed as a result of the company's stand.

Ottawa, Oct. 26.—"The workers will look to the Government itself for the protection of their rights to take part in government," said Tom Moore, president of the Trades and Labor Congress of Canada, in an interview regarding the order just issued by the president of the Canadian National Railways forbidding employees of that organization from taking part in politics or holding public office.

Mr. Moore's opinion is that it is drastic, and a development which can not go unchallenged. He stated that, contrary to the assertion of Senator Gideon Robertson, that it was a matter for the president of the Canadian National Railways and not the Government to deal with, it was up to the Government to gain redress of what he considers a countenancing of the taking away of political rights and the destruction of the principle of democratic Government.

The order continues to cause widespread comment in labor circles and it is likely that the question will be brought to Ottawa for action.

MEIGHEN HECKLED AT WINNIPEG

Prime Minister and Calder Met With Interruptions at Meeting

Winnipeg, Oct. 26.—A defence of the Government's course over the past three years, an attack on what he termed the "political jig dancing" of Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King, in his present Western tour, and a statement on the Government's tariff policy featured the address here last night of Rt. Hon. Arthur Meighen, Prime Minister of Canada, in the opening meeting of his tour of the Western Provinces. He was preceded by Hon. J. A. Calder, who is to accompany him on his trip, and who reviewed briefly what he considered some of the outstanding achievements of the Government in recent years.

The convention hall of the Industrial Bureau was filled when Isaac Pitblado, K.C., chairman of the meeting, called it to order.

Mr. Calder spoke of the appearance of Mr. Meighen in Winnipeg three years ago in the war election, and asked if the Government had not carried out its mandate. There were vociferous cries of "No" from various parts of the hall. "That," said Mr. Calder, "is a matter which will bear investigation." He added that from that election to the end of the war the Government had bent every energy toward its fulfillment.

Shouts.

There were isolated shouts of "Sugar," "Ross Rifles" and "Give the soldiers a square deal."

"I have never had any regret as to my own course in joining the Union Government, and I have no apology," said Mr. Calder.

There were further interruptions, and the chairman asked for a fair and attentive hearing for the speaker. The request was cheered by a majority of the audience.

Mr. Calder proceeded with his speech in silence. He said there was nothing unique in the abuse which had been heaped on the Canadian Government. Such a situation had been general throughout the world.

Mr. Meighen.

Mr. Calder talked forty-five minutes. The Prime Minister followed him, and was half-way through his speech before he met with any real interruption. "Is there," he asked, "any human being with a well-ordered mind who will say that the Government record of the last three years has been a record of inaction or reaction?" he asked.

"Reaction," cried someone in the audience, and one man called: "Bob Russell," and there were some cheers.

"At least there was no inaction," said the Premier, and there was laughter and cheering and some "booing."

"That," explained Mr. Meighen, "was not a matter of legislative record but of the common law of England." There were interruptions from the back benches.

"I am ready," said the Premier, "to accept the compliment of those who think it not safe that the case of the Government should be heard."

"How about sugar?" someone asked.

"We decided that some days ago," was the reply, "and I presume my interrupters would have preferred a decision the other way."

Immigration Act.

There were mentions from the crowd of "Immigration Act."

The Premier remarked that there were those who said "The Government should go out," but when an election came it would be found—

"That they will go out," someone cried, and there were cheers.

Mr. Meighen finished his sentence differently. "It would be found," he said, "that, like the wolves at night, a few can make an awful noise."

Free Country.

The Premier ran into more interruptions when discussing the tariff on implements. "This is a free country," he remarked

"No," came a shout from a section of the audience.

"Well," countered the speaker, "the people in the audience seem to be taking it pretty freely to-night." (Cheers).

The Premier declared that Canada was paying new to the United States practically $100,000,000 annually in exchange, and still, he said, there are those who say the salvation of the country is to be found in making it easier to buy goods from the United States.

"There must be," said the Premier, "such a tariff as will make it pay Canadian industries to remain in Canada, and make it pay industries to grow and to make goods within this country. Up to that point, and not beyond that point, the tariff in Canada or any class of goods should go.

Inquiry.

"I do not see how to find out what is necessary except by the most careful and thorough inquiry that can be made.

"That is the course the Government is pursuing, and before the electors of this country are asked to decide between our course and the vagaries of out various oppositions they will have a definite tariff from us in black and white. By the principle I have defined, by the limits I have clearly set out, that tariff will be constructed.

"If I am asked," he continued, "whether it will be possible to have a lower scale than prevails to-day, or not, I say we must await the completion of the investigation.

"For myself, I would hope that in the final result it would be found not to be higher, and perhaps to be lower than it is now."

Parliament.

Mr. Meighen asserted that Mr. King, the Liberal Leader, had no case when he charged the Government with using autocratic measures.

"The authority of Parliament over its executive is just as complete; just as final, just as supreme at this hour, and has been at every moment of the last six years, as it ever has been in the history of Canada or in any country on earth," he said.

"There has never been a single day when Parliament could not by a majority vote have voted the Government from office or forced it to a general election."

Escaped an Operation

There is nothing in the world a woman so much fears as a surgical operation. Often they are necessary, but often not; and many have been avoided by the timely use of that good old-fashioned root and herb remedy Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. If you are suffering from some dread ailment peculiar to your sex, why not profit by the experience of these two women whose letters follow?

These Two Women Saved from Operations.

Cedar Rapids, Ia.—"After the birth of my last child I had such painful spells they would unfit me entirely for my housework. I suffered for months and the doctor said that my trouble was organic ulcers and I would have to have an operation. That was an awful thing to me, with a young baby and four other children, so one day I thought of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and how it had helped me years before and I decided to try it again. I took five bottles of Vegetable Compound and used Lydia E. Pinkham's Sanative Wash and since then I have been a well woman, able to take care of my house and family without any trouble or a day's pain. I am ready and thankful to swear by your medicine any time. I am forty-four years old and have not had a day's illness of any kind for three years."—Mrs. H. Koenig, 617 Ellis Blvd, Cedar Rapids, Iowa.

Sandusky, Ohio.—"After the birth of my baby I had organic trouble. My doctor said it was caused by too heavy lifting and I would have to have an operation. I would not consent to an operation and let it go for over a year, having my sister do my work for me as I was not able to walk. One day my aunt came to see me and told me about your medicine—said it cured her of the same thing. I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and used Lydia E. Pinkham's Sanative Wash and they have cured me. Now I do my own housework, washing and ironing and sewing for my family and also do sewing for other people. I still take a bottle of Vegetable Compound every spring for a tonic. I recommend your medicine to others who have troubles similar to mine and you can use my letter if you wish."—Mrs. Paul Papenfuse, 1325 Stone St., Sandusky, Ohio.

HIS MIND BLANK FOR EIGHT YEARS

J. Guell, Wisconsin, Returned to Daughter's Home After Long Absence

Fond du Lac, Wis., Oct. 26.—John Guell, declared dead, his estate probated, walked in on his friends yesterday after an absence of eight years.

Guell's mind for the eight years up to three weeks ago had been a blank, he said. He remembers going to North Fond du Lac October 9, 1912, to collect a bill. Three weeks ago he found himself in Detroit. His mind gradually cleared and Saturday he recollected the name "Fond du Lac" and came back here.

When he knocked at the door of his daughter's home the family was terror-stricken, thinking he was a ghost.

He is in good health. A blow upon his skull caused a sliver of bone to pierce his brain twenty years ago, and this is believed to have caused amnesia.

ARTICLE TEN COULD BE CUT OUT AND LEAGUE CONTINUE

Brussels, Oct. 26.—Leon Bourgeois, president of the Council of the League of Nations, talking to American newspaper correspondents here, said that Article Ten of the Covenant of the League of Nations is not considered by European statesmen as a vital and essential element of the covenant.

M. Bourgeois said he had been surprised that this Article Ten had caused so much emotion in the United States. He stated that Article Ten could be eliminated without in any way modifying the effectiveness of the League of Nations.

"Article Ten," he said, "is scarcely more than a moral background to the covenant. It is not considered so important by Europeans as by Americans.

"There is really no sanction, or penalty, in this article. All penalties provided for in the covenant in order to make the League's action effective are in other articles."

M. Bourgeois, replying to questions regarding the prospect of revision of the covenant by the General Assembly of the League of Nations, which meets at Geneva November 15 next, said:

"The Council of the League, being guardians of the covenant, are, of course, unable to go before the Assembly with a project that alters the covenant. But individual states which are members of the League may, of course, propose such amendments as they see fit."

MONKEY'S BITES KILLED GREEK KING

Alexander Died Yesterday Afternoon As Result of Animal's Attack

Athens, Oct. 26.—King Alexander of Greece died at 5.20 p.m yesterday. His death was due to wounds received when a pet monkey attacked him early in October, the King being badly mutilated.

Throughout Monday night the heart action grew weaker, his general debility became more pronounced and pulmonary symptoms were intense. Breathing at times was most difficult, and alarming, and at noon yesterday it was announced that the King's condition was hopeless.

Alexander succeeded to the throne of Greece in June, 1917, when his father, King Constantine, abdicated in response to the demand of France, Great Britain and Russia, the three powers which had guaranteed the constitutional liberties of the Greek people. Alexander was the second son of Constantine, and at the time of his accession was not quite twenty-four years old. His elder brother, Crown Prince George, was considered ineligible for the throne because of alleged pro-German sympathies.

In any event, King Constantine nominated Alexander to succeed him.

Oath of Office.

Alexander took the oath of office at Athens in August, 1917, while the war was still in progress, and promised to carry out the policy of his father. This was said to have shocked the Entente Powers. It soon was reported that he was at odds with Premier Venizelos and had refused to abandon his idea of continuing his father's programme. Some doubts were raised as to the advisability of permitting him to assume the throne unless he discontinued what was characterized as an obstructive policy.

Reports of lack of harmony between Alexander and Venizelos were circulated in the Spring of 1920, but the Premier disposed of these in a statement in which he paid tribute to the King's patriotism. One respect in which the King and his Premier were said to have been at odds was over the King's morganatic marriage to Mlle. Manos, daughter of a former aide-de-camp to his father, which is said to have taken place in November, 1919. No record of the marriage was obtainable owing to the fact that it was not recorded with the Metropolitan of Athens, the supreme ecclesiastic authority of Greece.

The young King and his morganatic wife were childhood friends and sweethearts.

Back to Greece.

Alexander's refusal to give up his wife was said to have greatly worried Premier Venizelos, and there were reports that the King would not return to Greece from Paris, where he had gone. He did so, however, and witnessed Greek operations in Thrace in the Summer of 1920, entering Adrianople, which had been surrendered to the Greek troops, amid a great demonstration.

On October 3 he was bitten by a monkey while endeavoring to protect his dog from an attack. His wound became infected and several operations for the removal of flesh were performed.

King Alexander was tall, of medium build, blond hair and light complexion. He invariably wore a monocle. He had many of the features of his mother, Queen Sophie. His education was gained from private tutors and he had an excellent command of English. His favorite pastime was automobiling. He exercised little power in the affairs of his country, all state and foreign matters being handled by Premier Venizelos and his ministers.

TEACHER-TRAINING PLAN FOR CANADA

Central Institution to Prepare Vocational Teachers Proposed at Conference

Ottawa, Oct. 26.—((Canadian Press)—Tuesday's sitting of the first inter-provincial conference on technical education showed a unanimous desire on the part of all representatives present to co-operate to the fullest in finding a common basis for the development of technical education in Canada.

The earliest part of the day's proceedings was devoted to a discussion of the broad question of the training of teachers for technical education. The discussion centred chiefly on a proposal to establish a central training institution to serve all of Canada. The function of this training school would be to train all the vocational teachers required in the various Provinces. Candidates for training would be selected by the Provinces, and the following were suggested as some of the conditions under which such an institution might be established.

First—The Dominion Government to provide the building and equipment.

Second—Cost of maintenance to be borne by the Federal and Provincial Governments on a fifty-fifty basis.

Third—Management of the central training school to be under a board of governors representative of each Province and of the Dominion Government.

Fourth—The institution to have a dual staff—French and English-speaking.

DRIVE SOON FOR SAANICH NURSING

Effort Will Be Made Next Month to Secure Funds

Many residents of Saanich declare that they owe their lives to the untiring zeal of the Victorian Order of Nurses during the "flu" epidemic.

Many little feet are pattering about the homes of Saanich to-day or sturdily wending their way to schools which for the timely ministrations of these same nurses would have been still forever. As "that man or woman is unborn who can say which cradle rocks the genius, or under which roofs the world's saviours are being reared," the service to the nation rendered by these nurses is beyond the range of human estimation.

It is the aim of the committee and the nursing staff to provide such a service that illness and death in the Saanich Municipality may not be due to lack of nursing care or medical attention.

On Thursday, November 4, by a house-to-house canvass, the residents will be asked for financial assistance to continue this work, and since the demands are increasing, to maintain an increased service.

He was twice wounded in the war

JUSTICE REVIEWS MARTIN MORTGAGES

Gives Reasons For Sarah Susette Finlayson Right-of-Way

In his judgment, staying the delaying action of Mr. Justice Martin and giving right-of-way to the foreclosure action of Miss Sarah Susette Finlayson, who has five mortgages on the judge's Rockland Avenue home property, and alleges that the judge has been paying neither principal nor interest, and not even taxes on the mortgages until now he owes nearly $40,000, Mr. Justice Morrison said that he had to look for the main cause of action or dispute.

"The mortagee, Miss Sarah Susette Finlayson, in her statement of claim, alleges that in 1899 the Honorable Mr. Justice Martin, one of the parties herein, mortgaged to Sarah Finlayson, Arthur William Jones, Roderick David Finlayson and herself jointly, certain properties in the City of Victoria, for $7,000, repayable in 1902. In 1907 there was an assignment of this mortgage to Roderick David Finlayson by the surviving mortgagees, Sarah Finlayson having died in 1906. In 1916 Roderick David Finlayson died, having by his last will devised this mortgage to his wife, Lilias Mary Finlayson, who remarried in 1919 a Mr. Brooks. In May, 1920, she in turn assigned it to Sarah Susette Finlayson aforesaid.

Default Since 1904.

"In 1904 there was $5,000 paid by the mortgagor in reduction; since then there has been default in payments. In 1912 a further mortgage was given by the mortgagor herein to Sarah Susette Finlayson on the same property for $2,000, and there has been default in payment of principal and interest thereon. Again in 1913 the sum of $6,000 was borrowed from Roderick David Finlayson on this same property, to be repaid in 1916. This mortgage was also bequeathed by him to his wife, Lilias Mary Finlayson; she assigned it to the said Sarah Susette Finlayson. Default has also been made in the payments therein. In March, 1914, the sum of $14,000 was borrowed from Hannah Watts Jones on the security of other Victoria property. This sum was to be repaid in 1916. This mortgage was assigned the 27th May, 1920, to Sarah Susette Finlayson. There is default also in respect of this mortgage.

"On the 25th March, 1914, a further sum of $5,000 was borrowed from Sarah Susette Finlayson on adjoining property, to be repaid in 1916. Default has occurred in payment of this one. Then the mortgagee in her action makes the usual formal claim for an accounting and judgment, and also for consolidation of the above mortgages.

Demanded Part Payment.

"The mortgagor, on the other hand, in his action, which was commenced on the 17th of August, 1920 (the mortgagee's action having been commenced on the 30th of the same month), alleges that the said Sarah Susette Finlayson called in and demanded payment of the first mortgage on the property known as The Homestead, and threatened to foreclose. Whereupon the mortgagor began negotiations with a view to pay off this particular mortgage, leaving the others as they were.

"It is also further alleged that the mortgagee refuses to allow him to redeem the said mortgage unless he redeems the other overdue ones. And then it is alleged that after the above demand was made, the said Sarah Susette Finlayson, mala fide and pursuant to a fraudulent scheme, prevented the mortgagor from paying off this mortgage by means of the several assignments aforesaid from Mrs. Brooks and Mrs. Jones.

"It is also claimed that in consequence of this alleged wrongful refusal to allow redemption without also redeeming the other mortgages, it is impossible for the mortgagor to raise a further loan. He therefore claims to redeem the mortgage on his homestead freed from all the other mortgages aforesaid and to have the same reconveyed to him; that there is no right to consolidate, and he seeks a declaration that the assignments are part of a fraudulent scheme, and are null and void as against his equitable rights of redemption.

To Decide Consolidation Right.

"On this application the parties support their respective submissions by affidavits, Mr. Jackson, solicitor for Miss Finlayson, having been fully cross-examined on his.

"On this material, the substance of which I have set out above, the mortgagor claims his suit should be heard first, and that the suit in which the mortgagee is pursuing her remedies under the various mortgages should be postponed pending the trial and determination of the allegation of fraud thus set up and of the question of the mortgagee's right to consolidate her mortgages. Against so doing there is a strong current of authority.

"In my opinion there can be no question that the claim put forward by the mortgagor arises out of the substantial claim of the mortgagee for foreclosure, and particularly where there is no perplexing differences as to parties or subject matter, it occurs to me that the question raised in the mortgagor's action can be advanced as a defence to the mortgagee's action when the time arises to file a defence, and thus all the matters in dispute between the parties herein will be disposed of effectively in the mortgagee's action."

SOME REDUCTION IN LABOR DEMANDS BY EMPLOYERS

Employment for the week ending September 25 were compiled by the Government Labor Service Bureau, Ottawa, from 550 firms in British Columbia with a total payroll of 677,949 persons. In comparison with their returns for September 18 these employers had enlarged their staffs by 63 persons or one tenth of one per cent.; firms in 10 industrial groups registering additions totalling 605 workers, while in 14 groups there were reductions aggregating 542 employees. A reduction in employment for the week under review had not been anticipated on the reports for September 18, but as shown above, did not materialize. For the following week, however, these firms expected that they would decrease their staffs by a considerably larger number of persons than they had increased them during the week under review.

In comparison with their reports for January 17, firms in 20 industrial groups reported additions to staffs aggregating 7,433 employees, while in 4 groups there were reductions amounting to 1,504 workers. The net increase, therefore, in the staffs of these 550 firms since the middle of January was 5,929 persons or nine and six tenths per cent.

The most important increases in the volume of employment afforded as compared with reports from identical firms for September 18, occurred in Iron and Steel Products, and Metalatic Ores, that of 175 persons in the former being the larger. In both of these groups the increases were spread over a large number of firms. For the following week, however, reduced employment was anticipated by employers in these industries, that in Iron and Steel Products being substantial. With the exception of a proposed increase of over 130 persons in Logging, the changes in the remaining plus groups, both actual and estimated, were slight.

The only large reduction in employment, as compared with the returns for the preceding week, was reported in Lumber and Its Products, where 249 fewer persons were employed. The decreases in this group were in one case the result of a shutdown for repairs and in another mill, of the release of a night shift. For the week of October 2, however, some recovery from the losses reported during the week under review was expected.

The most noteworthy increase in employment as compare with their returns for January 17 was reported by firms in Railway Construction, where 1894 more persons were employed. In Logging, Edible Animal Products, Lumber and Its Products, Edible Plant Products, Non-Ferrous Metal Products, Pulp and Paper, Metallic Ores, Hotels and Restaurants, Telephone Operation, Wholesale Trade, Local, Railway and Water Transportation, there were additions to staffs ranging from 100 to 500 persons in this comparison.

The most pronounced reductions in the number of persons on their staffs as compared with their returns for the middle of January were registered by firms in Logging and Iron and Steel Products, 403 and 973 fewer persons being employed in these groups, respectively. The decrease of the latter was largely the result of inactivity in shipyards. The changes in the remaining groups showing minus tendencies in this comparison were insignificant.

PRAIRIES GO DRY.

British Columbia and Quebec are the only two Provinces now left to tell the tale about intoxicants. Ontario will decide next April as to whether its present Prohibition Act shall remain or whether it will place itself in the "bone dry" column with Alberta, Saskatchewan, Manitoba and Nova Scotia. Prince Edward Island is more experienced in the operation of liquor law and there does not appear to be any indication of its early removal to the more complete arid state. New Brunswick passed an Act in 1916 and its amendment recently was not coupled with any suggestion of further advances towards the "dry" state.

Last Wednesday's vote in this Province had little or no effect upon the electorate, of the four Provinces which recorded their decisions yesterday. Interest centred very largely in the more settled communities with Winnipeg and Regina voting "wet." In the rural districts generally "dry" majorities were almost without exception, although the two outstanding features of the vote in all four Provinces were the comparatively small majorities and the exceedingly small poll. The issue, of course, was entirely different from that which British Columbia disposed of last week. The four latest converts to absolute prohibition were required to decide whether the privilege of importation should remain or not.

All that is left, therefore, is an Act of a similar character to that which British Columbia "killed" last Wednesday, with the exception that importation facilities are done away with. And it is altogether likely that the Governments of these Provinces will be asked to reach a decision as to whether even the "medicinal privileges" under the remaining measure shall be still further curtailed or abolished altogether. Yesterday's more or less apathetic vote gives rise to the suggestion that the "dry" forces will endeavor to complete their work and bring about the elimination of all legal sale of liquor.

THE EXPERT'S DAY.

Sir Arthur Currie told the Canadian Club yesterday that Harvard University had just raised $15,000,000 to assist it to meet its increasing expenses. His own mission concerns itself with the raising of one third of that amount in order that McGill University may be in a position to discharge its functions in a manner such as Canada has a right to expect from her leading seat of learning. Sir Arthur employed reasoned argument in his appeal for a better understanding of the dependence which the State places upon the University. He is quite right when he says that the country looks to the University to produce men for leadership and direction. And as long as this country is desirous of filling its responsible positions by Canadians it is imperative that Canada provide the wherewithal to produce the men with the requisite capabilities. It is already a melancholy fact that frequent importations from the United States have been resorted to on the demand for a technical expert of unusual ability in the wide field of commerce and industry. In many cases justification for such a course has been lacking; but as long as the neighboring Republic emphasizes its appreciation of the value of the expert in a day of experts the impression obtrudes that there is a shortage on this side of the border. Nevertheless, if Sir Arthur's mission to the West succeeds in rekindling a greater measure of practical interest in the importance of higher education he will have rendered another service to his country as well as to the institution over whose destinies he presides.

A THRONE VACANT.

King Alexander of Greece, whose death took place yesterday, possessed neither the opportunity nor the ability to take a very active part in the government of his country. His selection to succeed his father was the outcome of an understanding between Great Britain, France and Russia, and the influence the three chief Allies at that time were able to bring to bear upon those who comprised the power behind the throne in the Hellenic Kingdom. The real ruler of Greece is Premier Venizelos, and his country's entry into the war on the side of the Allies was the result solely of his successful elimination of Teuton influence from the Court after the deposition of King Constantine.

No matter to whom the vacant throne goes, however, it is quite certain that the will of the Entente will be felt in the subsequent selection. Greece, under King Alexander, has become a potent factor in Balkan affairs, and his successor should be able to accept the newer national inclination towards a democratic monarchy. In any event there must be no return of Tino.

CREDIT INCREASING.

Yesterday's quotations to the Provincial Minister of Finance for a three-year loan of one million dollars furnishes additional proof that British Columbia securities continue to ascend in value. The best price offered represents a cost to the Province of four and three-quarters per cent, or a better figure than that obtained by Ontario a few days ago. This in itself is a striking commentary upon the manner in which British Columbia's business has been conducted since the advent of the retiring Administration as well as a compliment to the Hon. John Hart, who has shepherded the finances of the Province during more than three of the most trying years of its history.

CIVIC "INNS."

Port Alberni's City Council does not intend to allow the grass to grow under its Aldermanic feet. It has been quick to detect in the result of the recent plebiscite an opportunity whereby municipal coffers may share the benefits which are likely to accrue to the Provincial Treasury as a result of the Government's entry into the liquor business. In other words the Island municipality has suggested to the Premier that the Province maintain its own rigid privileges in the matter of liquor purchases; but that it relegate to the municipalities the task of its distribution by sale. Whatever may be the merit of the suggestion it is not at all improbable that the municipal dispensary idea will produce a crop of novel if not useful suggestions from other quarters of the Province.

NOTE AND COMMENT

Premier Lloyd George has now summoned a general conference of all the parties involved directly and indirectly in the present industrial crisis. He announced in the House of Commons a few days ago that he would not take this course unless there was a tangible hope of discovering a solution to the deadlock. It is presumed, therefore, that developments have taken place which offer promise of an early settlement of the dispute between the miners and the Government.

Premier Meighen's meeting at Winnipeg last night was notable for the number of interruptions with which it was punctuated. Even the people of the Prairie Capital have their own opinions about the sugar order and its genesis.

It is reported to be the intention of the Canadian Air Board to establish a training station for seaplanes and land machines in British Columbia next Spring. The proposal should not be allowed to lapse; topographical and climatic conditions in this Province differ from those of the Prairies and British Columbia aviators should have every facility of conquering all the difficulties met with during the last lap of the recent trans-continental flight.

According to the budget approved by the Council of the League it will require no less than four hundred thousand dollars per month to conduct the operations of the League of Nations next year. Let us trust that the peoples of the subscribing members will get their money's worth. So far it has been little more than a League of Hope.

OTHER PAPERS' VIEWS

October in the Country

(The Toronto Globe.)

One hesitates to praise the Autumn weather lest the next morning so fickle a fairy should mock her flatterers. Like the little girl in the story when October is good she is very, very good, but she goes to the other extreme Already we have had an experience of her frowning mood, but one day's serenity atones for any ill-temper. This is the time when every city dweller if he has not been wholly blinded to the beauties of nature or prefers to see them on the cinema screen, wishes he could play at farming. He will find refreshment of spirit and body in a tramp through the countryside, now a changing picture, to which the maple and the sumach are adding their glowing touches. The spectacle is a feast for the artist, a tonic for the pessimist, and a comfort to the economist. It is a vision not of lovliness alone, but of security which the city does not impart to thoughtful persons. The country reveals the essential Canada. The city is the superstructure and it fortunate in having so indestructible a foundation.

WHY

DID CINDERELLA HAVE A GLASS SLIPPER?

(Copyright, 1920, By The Wheeler Syndicate, Inc.)

Every child knows the story of the little cinder-girl, the pumpkin coach, the charming prince and the glass slipper, but few persons know that the last-named element of the story is a radical departure from the original, and is due to an error in the translation of the French version of the fairy-tale.

It is almost sacreligious to disturb the details of a story which has delighted millions of youngsters, but the fact remains that the Cinderella of the French narrative wore slippers of fur, instead of glass. In the original the slipper is described as "pantoufle en vair" but the translator, being more familiar with the sound of the French language than the sense of it, read vair (fur) as if it were verre (glass), and the glass slipper has remained an integral part of the tale from that day to this, despite the very apparent incongruity of using anything as brittle and fragile as glass for the manufacture of dancing shoes. But Cinderella's slippers were the gift of her fairy godmother and fairies can undoubtedly make glass as comfortable and easy as fur.

Pending the inquest the details of the arrangements for the funeral and the route to be taken in removing the body to Cork have been left undetermined. The body is still in the Brixton prison morgue, clothed in a coarse brown Franciscan habit.

To London.

It is reported from Dublin that all the members of the "Irish Republican Parliament" intend to come to London for the obsequies here. It is stated that a bodyguard of fifty Irish Volunteers will attend the funeral party throughout the journey.

A deputation of twenty-one members of the corporation of Cork, headed by Deputy Mayor O'Callaghan, arrived this morning to attend the London services and accompany the funeral party to Cork. Ten members of the Cork Harbor Board also are here, together with many persons prominent in the civic and commercial life of Cork and other Irish cities.

The members of the late Lord Mayor's family were continuing today their vigil over the body.

Inquest Wednesday.

This noon the Irish Self-Determination League announced it had received definite word that the inquest would be held in Brixton prison at 11.30 a.m. Wednesday. It is expected the body will be placed in state at St. George's Cathedral, Southwark, before 6 p.m. Wednesday, and will remain lying there until Thursday morning. A bodyguard which will be relieved each three hours will be posted about the catafalque.

Solemn requiem mass will be sung at St. George's Cathedral at 11 a.m. Thursday, the celebrant being Father O'Meara, the administrator of that cathedral. Absolution will be given by Archbishop Mannix, the Australian prelate, and Bishop Cotter, of Portsmouth.

Procession.

The funeral party will proceed from the cathedral to Euston Station at 2 p.m., contingents from all the Irish societies from London and representatives from Irish civil and commercial bodies marching in the procession.

In Buenos Ayres.

Buenos Ayres, Oct. 26.—Religious services in memory of Terence Macswiney were held here last night. Friends of the "Irish Republic" and sympathizers joined in the ceremony.

Some French Words.

Paris, Oct. 26.—Although declaring France must not interfere in questions relative to the interior policy of Britain, newspapers commenting upon the death of Lord Mayor Terence Macswiney of Cork, pay tribute to his courage.

"One can only bow down before the man who has died for his ideal," The Echo de Paris says. "The sacrifice made by Macswiney will resound throughout the world as a heartrending appeal of a suffering nation."

In Rome.

Rome, Oct. 26.—The death of Lord Mayor Macswiney, of Cork, has caused consternation among the numerous Irish people here.

Only a short time before news of the Lord Mayor's death was received, Superior-General Hennessey, of the Christian Brothers of St. Mary's Dublin, was received by the Pope.

The Superior-General declared that the death of Macswiney would render the situation in Ireland still worse, as the Irish Volunteers would consider themselves entitled to revenge. This, in his view, would result in reprisals by troops and police, and there would be reckless, indiscriminate shootings, with innocent victims, murders, raids, burnings and unspeakable violence.

Mass for repose of the soul of Macswiney was celebrated in the church adjoining the Irish ecclesiastical college here. The monument of Daniel O'Connell, the Irish patriot who bequeathed his heart to this church, was draped in crepe.

Pope Prayed.

Rome, Oct. 26.—Information regarding the death of Terence Macswiney was received at the Vatican from the Associated Press to-day.

When Pope Benedict was informed of the death of the Lord Mayor he showed deep regret and then knelt, remaining a long time in silent prayer.

Hunger Striker Died.

London, Oct. 26.—Joseph Murphy, one of the hunger strikers in the jail in Cork, Ireland, died last night at 8.30.

Murphy was a member of the Irish volunteers and was well-known as an athlete. He was twenty-five years of age and unmarried.

Joseph Murphy was one of eleven men incarcerated in Cork jail two days before Lord Mayor Macswiney was sent to Brixton prison in London. All the men in Cork jail immediately went on hunger strikes. Last week one of them, Michael Fitzgerald, died.

A dispatch from Cork, September 10, asserted that the American consul there had established the fact that Joseph Murphy was born in Lynn, Massachusetts, but that he had been brought to Ireland when an infant by his father, who is a British subject.

At the beginning of the war, one son of the elder Murphy, born in Lynn, according to Mr. Murphy, registered at the American consulate in Queenstown as an American. Joseph, however, failed to register.

It is asserted that the Government accusation against Murphy was that he had a bomb in his possession.

PREPARING FOR ELECTION IN STATES A WEEK HENCE

other of the parties. In this election in New York and a number of other states, a court ruling has made it necessary for the voter to put his cross opposite every name he wishes to vote for and has thus eliminated his short-cut.

Women To Vote.

The participation of women voters in this election will entail a great deal of extra work. Greater care has to be taken in the selection of polling places and provision must be made for a greatly increased number of voters. In Jersey City barrels are to be used as ballot boxes, because the ordinary boxes are expected to prove too small to hold the ballots that will be cast.

There are indications this morning that the closing days of the campaign will bring out a series of bitter attacks by the supporters of both the Republican and Democratic presidential candidates.

Contrary to general expectations the total vote polled yesterday was nearly as large as that recorded in 1915, when Alberta first adopted prohibition. The dry majority on the referendum is only half as large as five years ago. The vote in 1915 was: dry, 50,110; wet, 29,543; dry majority of 20,567.

It is probable that when the final and official count is made on Monday's polling the drys will have a majority of about 10,000.

Cities.

Edmonton and Calgary, unlike the large cities of the other provinces, piled up majorities of over 1,000 in each case against allowing importation of liquor to continue. Lethbridge was the only city in Alberta to give a wet majority, and it by only 216 votes, while Cardston, the Mormon centre, gave 382 for the drys and 7 for the wets. Edmonton went dry by a majority of 1,344.

Calgary went dry by 459 majority. East Calgary voted wet by 3,161 to 2,964, but West Calgary voted dry by 3,181 to 3,837.

The total number of votes cast was 11,793 out of 15,250 registered.

Manitoba.

Winnipeg, Oct. 26.—(Canadian Press)—With formidable affirmative majorities in virtually all of the rural constituencies, Manitoba went on record in yesterday's referendum as favoring "bone dry" prohibition, with a temperance plurality which the final returns may show to be around 15,000.

Winnipeg, however, revealed itself as the stronghold of the "antis," the complete returns giving a negative majority of 6,392. The pronounced adverse vote in this city was the feature of the referendum. St. Boniface also registered a heavy "wet" vote.

Cleavage.

The sharp cleavage of opinion between the sentiment here and that of the rural areas was manifest at the outset. In the five first country constituencies where the returns were completed a "dry" majority of over 9,000 was shown, which in itself completely offset the adverse vote in Winnipeg. With later returns this figure may be substantially increased. A feature of the voting in Winnipeg was the exceptionally large percentage of electors voting, 44,190 out of 63,000 registering their opinion.

30,000 In Nova Scotia.

Halifax, Oct. 26.—Belated returns from the outlying districts of the province of Nova Scotia received this morning only served to swell the huge majority rolled up by the dry forces in yesterday's referendum on the question as to whether or not the importation of liquor for personal use was to be continued. While official figures will not be given out for some days, it is believed that they will show a majority of upward of 30,000. Halifax City was the only centre giving a wet majority.

NEW MEMORIAL HALL.

Cumberland — The formal opening of the G.W.V.A. Memorial Hall will take place to-night at 7.30 o'clock.

Among the gentlemen who will address the gathering are, Thomas Graham, General Superintendent of the Canadian Collieries (Dunsmuir) Ltd.; Charles Graham, District Superintendent, Mayor D. R. McDonald, Mayor Duncan of Courtenay, and W. M. Brown, President of the Cumberland Branch of the G.W.V.A.

A programme of vocal and instrumental selections is drawn up and should prove interesting.

The Cumberland City Band has offered to play at the opening ceremony. Refreshments will be served by the Women's Auxiliary of the G.W.V.A.

"The stars incline, but do not compel."

HOROSCOPE

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 26, 1920
(Copyright, 1920, by the McClure Newspaper Syndicate.)

Jupiter rules strongly for good today, according to astrology. Venus and Uranus are mildly adverse.

All business affairs should be pushed while this configuration prevails. The stars are read as presaging the growth of small independent enterprises, especially in lines of merchandise that appeal especially to women.

While the planetary forces are believed to impart the spirit of advancement in all commercial activities, speculation will be very unfortunate, since Uranus is in a place that prevents clear vision.

The sway of sinister stars is inclined toward women, about whom men may draw conclusions that are derogatory. The tendency will be to depreciate political service as well as commercial sagacity.

This is a most unlucky government for romance. Love affairs are likely to be unfortunate if controlled by the planets that have power to-day.

The seers again admonish men and women to recognize the spiritual side of life in even the most trivial matters, for the new era is to bring new understanding to humanity.

The Autumn quarter will be found beneficial to the people generally, it is prognosticated. This is held to mean that the result of the national election will be fortunate for the country.

Hospitals are to benefit exceedingly in the new year and there will be helpful legislation as well as financial recognition of their needs.

The public health will engross extraordinary attention toward the close of the year. Sanitary conditions in cities will be investigated.

Persons whose birthdate it is have the forecast of a calm, quiet and successful year. Their affairs will proceed in a satisfactory manner.

Children born on this day may be exceedingly gifted and may incline toward the arts. They are likely to be romantic. Poets are born under this sign.

B. C. BONDS GO AT RECORD PRICES

Outside Financial House Compete For Securities, As Provincial Credit Is High

The Hon. John Hart, Minister of Finance, Monday obtained the highest price obtained by any Province of Canada for similar bonds when he awarded to the highest bidders, Seattle National Bank, Cartens & Earles, Royal Financial, B. A. Bond Corporation and Gillespie, Hart & Todd, the issue of $1,000,000 of six per cent. industrial aid bonds at 103.351.

This price is nearly three points above the last record price obtained by British Columbia for similar bonds about three weeks ago, when $1,000,000 of P. G. E. six per cents brought 100.73. This, in turn, was about two points better than the price obtained on an issue of $1,000,000 put out a few weeks before.

Sold at a price of 103.351, to-day's issue will yield the Canadian investor only 4¾ per cent. interest. The last issue put out at 100.73 yielded 5.84 per cent. The yield on Victory Bonds here runs up to about 6.03 per cent.

The Hon. Mr. Hart was much elated when he opened the bids for the bonds to-day and found that outside financial firms are competing with one another in offering record high prices to obtain the securities of this Province.

"It means that the big financial houses of this continent, United States as well as Canada, now have the utmost faith in the credit of the Province of British Columbia," said Hon. Mr. Hart.

LORD BURNHAM THANKS PROVINCE FOR HOSPITALITY

Premier Oliver was in receipt Monday morning of the following letter of appreciation from Lord Burnham, chairman of the Imperial Press Conference, the delegates to which visited Vancouver Island at the latter end of August:

"Dear Mr. Oliver,—As chairman of the Imperial Press Conference, I wish, on behalf of all the delegates of the newspaper press of the Empire, to convey to you their cordial thanks for the splendid welcome and hospitality accorded to us in the Province of British Columbia. We were enabled to acquaint ourselves, as far as time allowed, with the life and resources of the Province under the most favorable conditions, and our visit could not have been pleasanter. I should be greatly obliged if you would kindly cause an expression of our warm thanks and high appreciation to be conveyed to the mayors and citizens of the cities and towns which were so kind as to have received us. (Signed) Burnham."

G.W.V.A. BAND TO RESUME SUNDAY CONCERT SERIES

The G. W. V. A. band, under the leadership of Bandmaster J. M. Miller, is making preparations to resume the series of Sunday concerts which were such a popular feature last Winter. The concerts will be held at Pantages Theatre and the first is to be on Sunday, November 7, for which an especially attractive programme is being prepared.

The band hopes to operate these concerts on a more ambitious scale this year and to this end the co-operation of the various musical organizations in the city is being enlisted in order to give to music-lovers the best to be obtained. Instead of the ticket system adopted last year, the band will open a subscription list in order that they may be enabled to get the latest scores and numbers and so make the concerts really worth while from a musical standpoint. Fuller particulars of the subscription list will be announced later.

HE HAS NEVER FELT BETTER IN HIS LIFE

Winnipeg Man Gains Fifteen Pounds by Taking Tanlac; Health Is Restored

"Thanks to Tanlac I have actually gained fifteen pounds in weight, and am just as good a man to-day as I ever was," said Peter Wold, of 391 Logan Avenue, Winnipeg, well-known contracting carpenter.

"For more than a year," he continued, "I suffered from indigestion and stomach trouble, and lost my appetite so completely that I ate little more than enough to keep body and soul together. Even the smell of food nauseated me, and at times I could scarcely retain a thing on my stomach. The little I did manage to eat caused me terrible cramping pains, and gas formed and pressed up against my heart until I had to gasp for breath. I often became so dizzy I couldn't stay up on a ladder, and I was so restless I never got a good night's sleep. I was so weak I could hardly saw a plank, and simply felt miserable all the time.

"Well, sir, Tanlac began building me up from the very start, and three bottles of the medicine has given me an enormous appetite and relieved me entirely of that awful indigestion and stomach trouble. Why, I never felt better in my life than I do now, and I'm greatly indebted to Tanlac for what it has done for me."

Tanlac is sold in Victoria by D. E. Campbell, corner Fort and Douglas, and Lang's Drug Store, Esquimalt Road.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL

The home of Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Honor, 1028 Sutlej Street, was the scene of a very pleasant party last evening, in honor of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Patch, late of the McKenzie Street Grocery, who are leaving for Kelowna where they will make their future home. The house was prettily decorated with chrysanthemums. The first part of the evening was given over to cards, after which a delicious supper was served. An interesting little ceremony took place when Mr. and Mrs. Patch were formally presented with a handsome set of cutlery, as a token of esteem and with best wishes for their future success, from their fellow-workers, the various wholesale houses of the city and their respective travelers. After supper, dancing took place until 2 a. m., when the happy gathering broke up after the singing of "Auld Lang Syne." Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Patch, Mr. and Mrs. Sparks, Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Hughes, Mr. and Mrs. W. Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. C. Bishop, Mrs. Livesey, Mr. and Mrs. B. Thomas, Miss Marwood, Messrs. D. Davison, T. Cornish and F. Lovell. Mr. and Mrs. Patch will leave on to-morrow afternoon's boat en route for their new home.

TO-DAY'S JEWELS

Those who are beset by doubt or anxiety should observe the old superstition concerning the garnet, which is to-day's talismanic stone, and likewise the natal gem of those who were born on some anniversary of this day. In ancient times the garnet was thought to be all-powerful in solving a mystery or in determining for its owner what course to take in a doubtful situation.

It is particularly potent in clearing away doubts with which friendship is concerned. An old legend cancels thus: "If you would cherish friendship true, Wear this gem of warmest hue—The garnet."

Crimson is to-day's lucky color, according to Oriental superstition. All the high priests of mystic art wore crimson robes on the date; it was believed that this color gave them extraordinary powers.

The camelia is to-day's significant flower. Worn by a woman, it is believed to bestow unusual loveliness.

WAS PLEASED WITH FRUIT PICKING

Victoria Girl Spent Pleasant Time in Okanagan Valley

Recognition of the value of the right type of women and girls to harvest the apple crop of the Okanagan Valley is made in the excellent accommodation provided this year at the Coldstream Fruit Pickers Camp, according to a Victoria girl who spent some weeks in the camp.

Commodious Premises.

Situated about five miles from Vernon, in the municipality of Coldstream, the camp forms a concentration centre for the fruit pickers whose services are required by the growers. A commodious building with dormitories, large dining and recreation hall, and excellent bathing facilities houses the workers. A matron in charge, and a social committee formed of the girls themselves combine to make the leisure hours pleasurable.

A gramaphone and piano afford facilities for abundance of musical entertainment, and the weekly dance is a big factor in the camp's social life.

Most of the pickers are returning with money in hand after paying expenses, though wet weather and a light apple crop militated against the prospects anticipated.

Better Next Year.

Next season a heavy crop is expected, with excellent chances for the athletic type of girl to make good money. Those who worked through the fruit season this Summer say that apple picking makes the heaviest demands on the strength on account of the moving of ladders and the weight of the apples as they are picked into the pail or apron. On the other hand, cool weather and the freedom from mosquitoes makes apple picking an attractive occupation.

The importance of the fruit industry in British Columbia is testified by the fact that it now represents a capital investment of $35,000,000. With the rate of development promised in the next few years the Province should be able to supply the demands of the growing markets of Canada, and also increase her export trade. A big shipment of Okanagan apples was recently consigned to the Orient. As Canada and Australia produce their crops at opposite seasons there has been a considerable movement of B. C. apples to Australia. In the United Kingdom B. C. fruit has won an enviable reputation.

The fruit industry with picking through the Summer months, and work in the packing houses and canneries, affords a wide field of occupation for women fond of outdoor life. Payment is usually made by piece work, and the industrious and expert worker is well recompensed for her labor.

FINAL PLANS FOR CHAPTER'S HALLOWE'EN PARTY ON FRIDAY

Final plans for the big Hallowe'en party to be given at the Alexandra Club on Friday evening occupied the major portion of the meeting of the Camosun Chapter, I. O. D. E., yesterday afternoon. Mrs. Andrew Wright, the regent, was in the chair.

It has been decided that the grand march will take place at 8.30 instead of 9 o'clock as previously arranged, and it is particularly requested that every maiden carry her vanity case or a mirror with her. Fancy dress will be optional but it is anticipated that the majority of the little folks and a great many of the grown-ups will wear fancy costume and so enhance the spirit of carnival.

Colonel Andrews will play the dance music for the little folk between the hours of 6 and 7, after which Heaton's orchestra will supply the music. Mr. George Bushby will be master of ceremonies during the early part of the evening. Mrs. R. S. Day is in charge of the decorations and will be assisted by a large committee, while Miss Agnew convenes the mysterious bowls of fate and fortune-telling. Mrs. Watson will be convener of the refreshments and Mrs. Kippen is to be in charge of a candy stall.

Mrs. Hopkins and Mrs. Adams-Beck were welcomed into the chapter as new members yesterday.

Queen Alexandra Review.—The members of Queen Alexandra Review are anticipating a record attendance and an exceptionally good time to-morrow evening. It is requested that all members be on hand at 7.30, as there are several candidates to be initiated, after which the second degree will be conferred upon the large class eligible to receive it. These one-year members will be the guests of honor at a reception and banquet to be given at 9.30, to which the husbands and gentleman friends of all members are invited to be present. Short addresses will be given in commemoration of the twenty-eighth anniversary of the organization of what is now the largest and strongest woman's benefit society in the world. An excellent musical programme will be rendered and the evening spent in an informal social manner.

WEEK'S SUCCESSFUL C. G. I. T. CONFERENCE CLOSED SUNDAY

Saturday's session of the C. G. I. T. 'Teen Age Conference opened at 9.30. After the devotional period the groups and leaders which had been assigned by Miss Zeigler adjourned to their several rooms to elect their officers and decide on their name, motto, yell and song. This being done the groups reassembled again to listen to a talk from Miss Ziegler on the midweek meeting of the Sunday school class.

Canadian girls in training by meeting together in small groups can be really trained for service said the speaker. The physical standard stands for health and this can be obtained by obeying health laws, studying first aid exercises, sport and all sorts of out of doors games. The intellectual standard means knowledge attained through school vocational training, books, handcraft, lectures, nature study, music, art, current events and public speaking. Religious standard is developed through prayer, Bible study, self dedication and self discipline. The social standard means service, the opportunity being given through personal relationships, home, church, other organizations, the community, the world, choosing one's vocation.

After this address the groups again assembled for a half-hour conference with their leaders on the subject of "class loyalty and co-operation," after which Miss Zeigler again addressed the conference emphasing the C. G. I. T. code and requirements for the C. G. I. T. pin, which is the badge of membership for the C. G. I. T. movements throughout the country.

At 2.30 p.m., the conference photograph was taken after which the session opened with the conference hymn. The Cathedral C. G. I. T. group then put on a demonstration of the physical side of the programme, excellent papers being given.

Sunday afternoon a mass meeting was held in Metropolitan Church at 3.15. After the devotional exercises Mrs. Bishop read a telegram from the Winnipeg Girls' Conference in answer to greetings which were sent them by the Victoria Conference on Saturday. Mrs. H. E. Young and Dr. Sipprell addressed the girls, both delivering messages which emphasized the need of character of the highest order.

A 10-Day Tube of Pepsodent is sent to all who ask. See coupon.

You Can't Escape

Tooth troubles if you leave a film

All statements approved by authorities

You should try this new method of teeth cleaning. Try it ten days without cost. It combats the film which dims the teeth and causes most tooth troubles.

See and feel the results. To millions they are bringing cleaner, safer, whiter teeth.

The tooth wrecker

Film is the great tooth wrecker. A viscous film clings to the teeth, enters crevices and stays. The ordinary tooth paste does not end it. Old ways of brushing leave much of it intact. And very few people have escaped the troubles which it causes.

It is the film-coat that discolors, not the teeth. Film is the basis of tartar. It holds food substance which ferments and forms acid. It holds the acid in contact with the teeth to cause decay.

Millions of germs breed in it. They, with tartar, are the chief cause of pyorrhea—a disease now alarmingly common.

A new dental era

Dental science has now found ways to combat that film. The methods have been amply proved by years of careful tests. Now millions employ them. Leading dentists everywhere advise them.

The methods are combined in a dentifrice called Pepsodent. And, to let all know how much it means, a ten-day tube is being sent to all who ask.

Five desired effects

Pepsodent brings five desired effects. It combats the teeth's great enemies as nothing has done before.

One ingredient is pepsin. Another multiplies the starch digestant in the saliva, to digest starch deposits that cling. The saliva's alkalinity is multiplied also. That to neutralize the acids which cause tooth decay.

Two factors directly attack the film. One of them keeps teeth so highly polished that film cannot easily adhere. Every application repeats these results.

Send the coupon for the 10-Day Tube. Note how clean the teeth feel after using. Mark the absence of the viscous film. See how teeth whiten as the film-coats disappear.

What you see and feel will be a revelation and the book we send will explain how each effect is natural and necessary. It is important that you know this. Cut out the coupon now.

The New-Day Dentifrice

A scientific film combatant, combined with two other modern requisites. Now advised for daily use by leading dentists everywhere. Supplied by druggists in large tubes.

PREPARE FOR DRIVE TO AID BOARD OF TRADE

"Our object is to get everybody to take an interest in the future welfare of Victoria," stated F. M. Letteney, of Toronto, office manager of the bureau, who arrived yesterday in advance of the Canadian City Bureau men who will direct the drive for the Victoria Board of Trade next month. Robert Crosby, who will have charge of the campaign, and is now conducting a drive in Medicine Hat, will arrive in a day or two, when central quarters will be secured.

Among the Canadian organizations for which campaigns of this character have been put on are those in Brantford, Sarnia, London, Guelph, Hamilton, Winnipeg, and Medicine Hat. Altogether there are 300 places in the United States and Canada where campaigns of this character have been put on, and from whose experience the bureau can depend in solving problems which occur in all municipal communities.

Mr. Letteney was confident, in view of the work that has been done by the Bureau in other cities, that its services will be of great benefit to Victoria, as he said that live, up-to-date men, working together for the best interests of the community, can achieve wonders.

RELIEVES HABITUAL CONSTIPATION

HOLDS PRIZE DRAWINGS ARE NOT LEGAL

Decision Is Given by Magistrate Jay in Morris Case To-day

E. A. Morris, Ltd., charged under section 236 subsection C, of the revised Statutes, with "Conducting or managing a scheme, for the purpose of determining who are the winners of property to be advanced," by lot, tickets or chances, were found guilty of an offence under the Criminal Code in the Polic Court to-day and fined the nominal sum of $25. Under this section of the Act, two years imprisonment, with a fine not exceeding $2,000 might have been imposed.

Magistrate Jay in rendering judgment on the case that has been before the court in remand from week to week all last Summer stated, "The objection was taken that this charge was not under my jurisdiction, it being claimed that the drawing of the winners numbers being made in Vancouver, and the prizes being sent from there to Victoria, but in as much as the tickets were given out at the locat store of the defendant firm, I find that the case comes within my jurisdiction.

Magistrate Jay here declared the present case as analogous to that of the Hudson's Bay Company in Edmonton, who were charged under sections A and C, with giving away an automobile by tickets purchased with goods over the value of a dollar. The Hudson's Bay Company had been convicted of the offence, and an appeal to the higher court had sustained the conviction.

The Magistrate referred also to the case of Taylor versus Sutton in the English records, where Justice Hawkins had found the accused guilty, though not on analogous lines entirely. In the latter case the defendant had been convicted for giving away prizes with pounds of tea, and Justice Hawkins had stated that "the customer bought tea, coupled with a chance of getting something of value, over which he had no selection himself, it being a matter of chance."

"I have come to the conclusion that the defendant company is guilty, but the case does not call for a severe penalty, as Mr. Morris is conducting a legitimate business, and the scheme was incidental to that. I therefore will fine the accused a nominal sum for the offence. I impose a fine of $25 on the accused, payment forthwith."

With the decision of this case apparently ends the campaign against lotteries in which The Times, Colonist, E. A. Morris and other firms of this city were all charged under that section of the code, with varying results.

ALLEGE RAIDING OF PLUMBING FIXTURES

Case Comes Up in the Police Court; One Charge Succeeds

H. Nelson, charged on two counts of breaking and entering, was to-day acquitted on the more serious charge, that of entering premises at 2302 Chambers Street, formerly the Lion Saloon, on the night of October 16.

The accused was defended by R. C. Lowe, who pleaded that there was not sufficient ground for a conviction, as the evidence submitted failed conclusively to connect the accused with the theft of certain plumbing articles exhibited in evidence.

Sgt. Boulton stated that he had found the accused on the premises in question, which appeared in great disorder, with furniture thrown out into the street, and he was endeavoring to leave by the back door. The front door had been broken open, and on the person of the accused had been found nine water faucets, two electric light globes and other articles. Nelson told the police that he had secured the same from Messers Thacker and Holt, which claim the police failed to verify.

The failure of the prosecution to question the well-known plumbing firm as to the correctness of the accused's statement, gave the defending counsel the grounds for his objection, which was sustained by the court. Nelson was found not guilty on the first charge, that of entering the premises on Chambers Street. An order asking for the return of the faucets and other articles exhibited to the owner, J. T. Braydon, of 1424 Blanshard Street was later given, with the entire consent of the defending counsel.

J. T. Braydon told the court that his premises on Blanshard Street had been broken into on the same night, and some plumbing utensils were missing. He identified the faucets as similar to the ones he had received in stock for his plumbing establishment some days previously.

The order from the court gave him back the property that he claimed. On a second charge, that of breaking and entering premises on the night of October 16 and doing damage to the extent of $25 Nelson was fined $25 and $40 damages.

MONTREAL MELONS GROW PERFECTLY IN THIS DISTRICT

Showing the adaptability of Victoria to grow varied products, the successful experiments of Stuart Armour, of the Cadboro Beach Hotel, in growing magnificent speciments of the famous Montreal melon, is being quoted by Commissioner Thomson of the Victoria and Island Development Association.

Mr. Armour secured some seeds of these famous fruits when in the East last year, and has succeeded in producing specimens as finely flavored as the original stock. On the New York market these melons are highly esteemed as to bring a price of $2.50 each, and it is thought that another industry for southern Vancouver Island has been discovered as a result of the test.

To secure proper flavor and ripening the plants need to be covered with small frames as they approach maturity, but the price secured for good speciments is so satisfactory that it is expected that a large number of patches will be under cultivation in the vicinity of Victoria next year.

WINTER MAILS TO DAWSON NOW ON WEEKLY BASIS

A weekly mail service between Whitehorse and Dawson has now been instituted, in place of the semi-weekly service which has been operated in the winter months for years past by the British Yukon Navigation Company.

Post Office Inspector Fletcher has now returned from the North, where he succeeded in letting the new contract to Coates and Kastnar, two old-timers well acquainted with conditions. In addition to the transportation of a maximum 1,200 pounds of mail, the weekly service will also carry passengers. No parcels will be conveyed, and instructions not to accept parcels or fourth class mail matter for points beyond Whitehorse have been sent to every postmaster.

The distance between Whitehorse and Dawson is 346 miles, and the decrease in mails and passenger traffic, due to the lessened population of the Yukon, made the line unprofitable on the old basis of a twice a week service.

Mr. Fletcher stated on his return to Victoria that there is every possibility of a great revival of business in the Yukon should the recent discoveries in the Mayo district become as rich as the preliminary reports indicate.

SALTS IF KIDNEYS OR BLADDER BOTHER

Harmless to Flush Kidneys and Neutralize Irritating Acids.

Kidney and Bladder weakness result from uric acid, says a noted authority. The kidneys filter this acid from the blood and pass it on to the bladder, where it often remains to irritate and inflame, causing a burning, scalding sensation, or setting up an irritation at the neck of the bladder, obliging you to seek relief two or three times during the night. The sufferer is in constant dread, the water passes sometimes with a scalding sensation and is very profuse; again, there is difficulty in avoiding it.

Bladder weakness, most folks call it, because they can't control urination. While it is extremely annoying and sometimes very painful, this is really one of the most simple ailments to overcome. Get about four ounces of Jad Salts from your pharmacist and take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast, continue this for two or three days. This will neutralize the acids in the urine so it no longer is a source of irritation to the bladder and urinary organs which then act normally again.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, harmless, and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and is used by thousands of folks who are subject to urinary disorders caused by uric acid irritation. Jad Salts is splendid for kidneys and causes no bad effects whatever.

Here you have a pleasant, effervescent lithia-water drink, which quickly relieves bladder trouble.

INFIRM MEN FLOCK HERE FROM PRAIRIES

Returned Soldiers Out Here For Mild Winter Add to Unemployment

The Provincial Government has not been officially informed about the influx to British Columbia of thousands of returned soldiers from the Prairies, who are aggravating unemployment conditions, particularly on the Mainland.

Premier Oliver said to-day that he had seen newspaper reports of the numbers of returned soldiers who are drifting to the Coast to Winter in the mild climate here. He understood that it seemed to be a case of the Prairie provinces passing these men on to British Columbia, which has had more than her proportion of returned soldiers.

Attorney-General J. W. deB. Farris, under whose department labor matters come, is in Vancouver to-day. It is expected that the matter will be brought to his attention when he returns here before the end of the week.

According to unofficial reports that are coming through, returned men, now that the harvesting is over and the bad weather starting in the Middle West, are jumping trains and trekking West. Many of them are stopping off at every town and community along the route seeking work. As the small sawmills are closing down and the larger ones are curtailing production, these men are unable to get work and are landed on Vancouver, where they are joining the number of British Columbia men who are out of work because of the slowing down of the lumber industry.

Many of the men from the Prairies carry with them letters from medical men telling of their physical infirmities, and how they must Winter in a mild climate, and asking persons to give them employment.

CHARMING STUDIES AT ART EXHIBIT

Well-known Artists' Work Shown in Belmont Building This Week

Over three hundred pictures representative of local artists have been assembled for the annual exhibition of the Island Arts and Crafts Club, which opened at the Belmont Building yesterday. More than two hundred visitors were in attendance for the opening and displayed the keenest interest in the collection of arts and crafts arranged in the five rooms on the fourth floor. The collection is so large that an afternoon can easily be spent at the exhibition, and the afternoon tea served by the lady members of the club creates an interesting diversion.

Many well-known names are seen on the various pictures in the water-color section, while several artists new to Victoria are also exhibiting. Among the better known artists are T. Bamford, whose charming bits of English scenery have an instant appeal; Mrs. Basil Hartley has cleverly captured the charms of Rodd Hill and its vicinity in several little sketches, while Miss Kitto, a faithful exhibitor, is showing several delightful specimens of her work.

Included in this section are a number of fine etchings by Col. H. N. Roome, of Cowichan, who, during a long sojourn in the Orient, has seized and expressed through this medium some of the characteristic scenes and architectural gems of India. Local beauty spots with all their appeal of sea, mountain and sky, are favored by a number of artists, including R. B. Butler, who has entered some charming studies in soft greys and blues; M. L. Weaver-Bridgman and Mrs. R. S. Garnham-Harvey. Hugh Davis has a penchant for marine subjects, his pictures of fishing smacks under full sail being among the most noteworthy in the collection. Collections of miniatures by Mrs. Arthur Paget, Mrs. E. W. Izard and Miss Grace Rosher are also included in this section.

In the oils one of the most striking is the portrait of the artist's sister by Miss Theresa Wylde, who has recently returned after an absence of some years in England. Her work is strong and lifelike, revealing temperament and technical ability in an unusual degree. Arthr Burchett has several clever studies in this section, reproducing faithfully the misty distances of the Scottish lakes. Mrs. Dennis Harris, T. S. Gore, W. F. N. Copeman are also exhibiting, while J. Semeyn has several interesting studies, including a fanciful medieval treatment of "The Modern Knight," representing a British soldier, mounted, and upholding the standard.

Lack of space precludes reference to all the exhibitors, but the general public will find the exhibition well worthy of a visit or even a series of visits. The exhibition will remain open daily until Saturday.

Judge Lampman Finds Doctor's Bill, Divorce Proceedings and a Postmaster Husband Much Tangled

Whether a doctor can collect for a small operation from a woman's husband when the woman goes from the doctor's office to a lawyer and straight away starts a divorce action against her husband, is what J. A. Aikman, appearing for Dr. M. J. Keys, and J. S. Brandon representing R. H. Perrott, postmaster at Courtenay, argued about before Judge Lampman this morning.

Dr. Keys was suing the postmaster for a bill of $35 for operating on Mrs. Perrott's nose. Mr. Brandon however, said that Dr. Keys had no claim against the postmaster, as the woman who was operated on as Mrs. Perrott left the doctor's office and went straight down Fort Street to Mr. Aikman's office and had him launch proceedings so that she could divorce her husband. Mr. Brandon put in the petition for the dissolution of the marriage drawn up by Mr. Aikman, Dr. Keys's own lawyer.

The postmaster has taken another wife and the former Mrs. Perrott has also married again, it was stated.

Judge Lampman said it was an important point and he reserved judgment. Both Mr. Brandon and Mr. Aikman are to submit in writing authorities on domestic relations.

Have you heard about Peps? Peps is a scientific preparation put up in pastille form, which provides an entirely new and effective treatment for coughs, colds, chest and throat troubles.

Peps contain certain medicinal ingredients, which, when placed upon the tongue, immediately turn into vapor, and are breathed down the air passages to the lungs. On their journey, they soothe the inflamed and irritated membranes of the bronchial tubes, the delicate walls of the air passages, and finally enter and carry relief and healing to the lungs.

In a word, while no liquid or solid can get to the lungs and air passages, these Peps fumes get there direct, and at once commence healing.

RUSH OF CHINESE TO ORIENT BEGINS

Liner Talthybius Cleared at Noon with 600 Celestials and Full Cargo

An unusual scene was witnessed at the Outer Docks this morning when six hundred Orientals trooped up the gangway to the deck of the Blue Funnel liner Talthybius and later put to sea for China.

The Talthybius, Captain Donald Mansfield, arrived at the ocean docks shortly before 8 o'clock from Seattle and cleared about noon for Yokohama and Hongkong loaded with freight down to her Plimsoll mark.

The unusual rush of bookings by Chinese taxed the existing passenger accommodation of the liner to the limit. It was discovered that the ship was short about twelve bunks and the firm of Lemon, Gonnason & Co. was called upon to install the few additional bunks necessary to accommodate the last arrivals of the Chinese homeward movement.

In the days of the coolie movement across the Pacific ships of the Talthybius type have accommodated as many as 4,000 Chinese, but the usual accommodation does not provide for such a rush as featured by to-day's sailing.

Beginning Of Exodus.

The crowd of Orientals departing by the Talthybius marks the beginning of the annual exodus of Chinese to China in the Fall of the year.

Before the war there was a tremendous movement of Chinese to the Orient in connection with the Chinese New Year festivities. Now that the war regulations have been modified there are indications that the annual Fall movement to China will be revived.

Full Holds.

In addition to her steerage passengers the Talthybius cleared for sea laden with a capacity cargo of general merchandise, the bulk of which was taken aboard at Seattle. An interesting feature of the liner's cargo, however, is a large consignment of cement shipped from this port by the B. C. Cement Company to consignees in the Orient.

The cement movement is gradually increasing in volume and is expected to continue, as there is a great demand for British Columbia cement in the Far East.

GLOUCESTER CRAFT HEADS FOR HALIFAX

American Contestant Esperanto Gets Rousing Send-off; Race Saturday

Gloucester, Mass., Oct. 26.—The fishing schooner Esperanto, "slicked up" like a millionaire's yacht, put out to sea yesterday to the cheers of every old salt and young sailor in this port, bound for Halifax, N. S., where she will meet the crack fisher craft Delawana in a series of races for the championship of the North Atlantic.

The Esperanto showed her nautical heels to crowds which lined every wharf and packed craft of every description.

Short run, a beat back, and a bit of sail shifting, to let the home folks see how she behaved, was Capt. Marty Welch's way of showing his appreciation of the rousing sendoff and hearty Godspeed given Esperanto and her crew.

Gloucester's sendoff was as loud as every available whistle, bell and foghorn could make it as long as it was thought the sturdy crew of the Esperanto was within hearing.

Capt. Welch had received before sailing a telegram from Senator Harding, Republican candidate for president, wishing him success.

Replying, Capt. Welch said:

"We expect to bring Old Glory over the finish line again in the lead, but if we do not, our Canadian cousins will know they have been in the race."

All sail was set as the schooner slipped out of view and, with a fair start, it was expected her skipper would bring her to anchor at Halifax Wednesday afternoon.

SHARK FISHING BY VETERANS' CO. IS SUCCESSFUL

N. Y. K. LINER KATORI MARU

Freighter Is Named After Capital City

S.S. City of Victoria Will Be Launched From Coughlan Yards At Vancouver on Thursday; Mrs. Stanley H. Coughlan to Be Sponsor.

Paying a compliment to the Capital, John Coughlan & Sons, the well-known firm of shipbuilders of Vancouver, have decided to name the nineteenth hull of their building programme, and the third ship to be built for their own fleet, City of Victoria. The City of Victoria is an 8,800-tonner and will be launched at five o'clock Thursday afternoon from the Coughlan shipyards on False Creek. Desiring to pay the same compliment to the Capital that was paid to Vancouver when the City of Vancouver was launched, the Coughlan firm has been on a still hunt for the rights to the name City of Victoria and all obstacles were removed yesterday. Mrs. S. H. Coughlan will be the sponsor when the City of Victoria takes to the water. The new ship is a duplicate of the fine freighters Margaret Coughlan and City of Vancouver.

LINERS TRANSFERRED TO SOUTH AMERICAN RUN UNDER SUBSIDY

Six O.S.K. Ships Formerly on This Route Will Ply to Buenos Aires

All six of the 6,000-ton passenger and freight liners formerly operated by the Osaka Shosen Kaisha in the Victoria-Oriental service have been placed permanently on the Japan-South American route under a Government subsidy, according to advices from Japan. Liners of 10,000 tons gross and 18,000 tons displacement have been substituted for these vessels in the Victoria service, the last of the big ships, the Alabama Maru, having touched here recently on her maiden voyage.

The Osaka Shosen Kaisha's subsidized South American service started yesterday when the steamship Canada Maru steamed from Kobe for Buenos Ayres, the South American terminus of the new line. She will be followed November 26 by the Tacoma Maru, which in turn will be followed December 25 by the Panama Maru, with the other vessels sailing as follows: Seattle Maru, February 10; Mexico Maru, March 10, and Chicago Maru, April 15. All the ships are well known in Victoria, having formed the company's British Columbia-Puget Sound-Oriental fleet for years. On the return voyage the ships will call in Cuban ports, San Pedro and San Francisco.

The new subsidized service, it is said, will have the unlimited backing of the Japanese Government.

KATORI MARU IS MISSIONARY SHIP

Inbound N.Y.K. Liner Has 114 Sunday School Delegates Aboard; Due Nov. 3.

Designated a "missionary ship," on this voyage, the Nippon Yusen Kaisha liner Katori Maru is now well away on her voyage from Yokohama to this port.

Out of the 125 saloon passengers crossing the Pacific by the Katori Maru, 114 of the first-class travellers are delegates returning form the World's Sunday School Convention, recently held at Tokio.

All the saloon passengers are bound through to the United States via Seattle.

The Katori Maru, according to her schedule, will arrive at this port November 3. W. R. Dale, local representative of the Great Northern Railway, Pacific coast agents for the Nippon Yusen Kaisha, has been advised that the Katori Maru has aboard a total of 244 passengers.

Fifty-five passengers—one second-class and fifty-four steerage—will come ashore here, while 125 saloon, eleven second cabin and 153 steerage are routed through to Seattle.

Capt. Machida's Joke

Captain Machida, master of the N. Y. K. liner Fushimi Maru, relates a yarn at the expense of the Sunday School delegates who proceeded to the Orient aboard his ship to attend the Tokio convention.

Meridian day came on a Sunday and Captain Machida informed the delegates that a day was dropped on the westbound trip and therefore Sunday could not be observed. The delegates, however, decided that Sunday should be observed, and services were accordingly held.

DATA ON FISHERIES PRODUCTION ISSUED

Ottawa, Oct. 26.—The Dominion Bureau of Statistics has issued a preliminary statement of the fisheries production of Canada, prepared from the returns collected by the Bureau in co-operation with the Fisheries Branch of the Department of Marine and Fisheries.

The total value of fish marketed fresh and of fish products is given as $56,485,579, compared with a value of $60,250,544 for 1918. Sardines and herring showed the largest decreases both in value marketed and quantity caught. The catch of haddock, halibut and cod was greater in 1919 than in 1918, while the value marketed was less. Salmon, lobsters and mackerel showed increases both in quantity caught and in value marketed. British Columbia fisheries having a value of $25,301,607, which is a decrease from 1918 of nearly two million dollars. Nova Scotia fisheries were valued at $15,171,929, a slight increase over 1918. Prince Edward Island, Ontario, Saskatchewan and Alberta showed increases in value, while New Brunswick, Quebec, Manitoba and the Yukon showed decreases.

Of the principal fish products, canned salmon is given at 1,394,215 cases valued at $13,842,140 in 1919, a slight decrease both in quantity and value from 1918.

DELAWANA READY FOR INTERNATIONAL RACE

Elimination Contest Between Nova Scotia Schooners Was Exciting Affair

Keen interest is being evinced in the international ocean race between the Nova Scotia schooner Delawana and the Gloucester schooner Esperanto, which will be run off Halifax, N.S., October 30.

Two other skippers were desirous of entering the contest, but it has been announced that it would be impossible to allow four boats to compete.

The Halifax Morning Chronicle gives the following account, in part, of the elimination contest from which the Delawana emerged victor:

It was beyond doubt the most remarkable sailing race ever staged in Halifax Harbor, and one of the most spectacular on world record. These two schooners, leading the fleet the whole way, had as close a battle on the forty-mile course in a fresh north-westerly breeze as the most ardent yachtsman could wish for. On the last leg of the race, as the two were off Thrum Cap beating in, the Gilbert B. Walters, still ahead carried away her fore-topmast and lost with it her best chance to win.

Thereafter the Delawana gained slowly but surely and finished 4 minutes and 27 seconds ahead of the knockabout, capturing the $1,000 first prize money, trophy and a nameplate.

Speed Shown.

One of the most remarkable features of the race was the speed with which the vessels covered the course, a distance by the chart of 39.55 sea miles and an actual distance, including the extra water covered by the schooners when starting at an angle to the wind on the thirteen mile beat home, of about fifty miles. The leading boat went over this distance in the actual elapsed time of 5 hours, 7 minutes and 40 seconds, or at the rate of about 10 sea miles an hour. The fastest time made was on the reach from the Inner Automatic Buoy to the Lightship Buoy and then again on the reach from the Lightship Buoy to Outer Automatic. On both these reaches the vessels averaged 10.4 sea miles per hour. They were travelling much faster than the steamer Tyrian, which, with the Sailing Committee, other officials and fifty or so excited spectators, was following the race.

All the captains displayed daring, but at the same time were cool in judgment.

Captain Thomas Himmelman, navigated the Delawana to victory, and Captain Angus Walters sailed the Gilbert B. Walters.

The schooners entering the race finished as follows: Delawana, Gilbert B. Walters, Alcala, Mona Marie, Bernice Zinck, Freda M. Himmelman, Democracy, Ruby L. Pentz, Independence.

HUGE COFFERDAM TO FLOAT SHIP

Bulkhead Around Damaged Prince Rupert Will Stay With Her to Drydock

According to advices from Swanson Bay work on the stranded steamship Prince Rupert is proceeding satisfactorily.

Work on the cofferdam will be started as soon as the ship is clear. It will take 100,000 feet of timber. This material is supplied by the Whalen Pulp and Paper Company's lumber mills. The dam, when completed will be built thirty feet above the upper decks of the sunken steamer. The wooden structure will be constructed close around the hull of the vessel, and will require a lot of submarine work by the divers. The under water planks will be bolted on, plank by plank, by the men working under the surface, sometimes at a depth of sixty or seventy feet.

The ship is lying at a slope of almost forty degrees, resting on her bows and stern. The forward part was not damaged whe she beached. The stern is under seventy-two feet of water, and the bows are almost out at low tide.

It is feared that the brass and copper word and the polished steel of the engine rooms and the superstructure will be badly corroded by the waste sulphurous acid from the sulphite plant. The waste enters the ocean right at the point where the vessel is lying, and runs all through her.

When completed the cofferdam will be really an outer hull of heavy timber and planks. The big pumps of the salvage ship Algerine will draw the water out and will float dam and ship, and then the Prince Rupert, still in her skin of timber, will be towed to the drydock for permanent repairs.

PARTIES SET DATES FOR NOMINATING CONVENTIONS IN PROVINCIAL CONTEST

Mr. Bell to Come Home.

George Bell, who until the dissolution was the senior member for Victoria, will hurry home for the election. Mr. Bell has been in Glasgow, Scotland, recently, in connection with the Scottish temperance campaign, in which he is taking an active share for the Dominion Alliance, and though he told The Times before leaving that he did not expect a dissolution this Fall, he stated then that he would be ready to leave immediately in case the political atmosphere clouded in British Columbia.

Mr. Bell has now hurried his departure from the second week of November, when he was to have crossed in the Aquitania, and will secure his passage on a steamer leaving on Friday. It therefore seems impossible he will be able to reach here before Nomination Day, but he will be here to give an account of his stewardship during the campaign.

Veterans of France Stand.

"As it has been rumored," says a staement issued to-day by Robert Macnicol, "that the Veterans of France Association has been proposing to place a candidate in the field for provincial honors at the coming election, I beg to point out that according to the constitution of our organization we are strictly non-political and that none of our funds can be used for the purpose of political propaganda.

"Our constitution does not, of course, prevent our members taking any action they may see fit independent of the Association so far as politics are concerned.

"I would also point out that our three delegates to the Soldier-Labor Council have executive powers, but they have not the authority to take part in any business relating to that Council which would commit our organization so far as endorsing candidates for the Provincial Legislature is concerned."

A Joint Body.

The Grand Army of United Veterans, the United Farmers and the labor organizations of British Columbia are going to contest the Province, according to J. H. Hawthornthwaite. The farmers are to be left to deal with the rural districts, while the United Veterans and the labor organizations will divide the cities.

Mr. Hawthornthwaite announces that he himself will again run for Newcastle, the seat he has represented for years, as a Socialist-Labor man. He said that his combination would have candidates in each of the thirty-nine ridings of the Province. In Victoria there will be two labor men and two soldiers, it is stated.

R. A. Copeland, President of the United Farmers, has already been conducting meetings for this alliance at points on the Island. A platform will be drawn up based on co-operation, placing of the roads under a road board, development of natural resources, more efficient control of immigration, establishment of rural credits, reform of the civil service and reforestation.

Soldier-Labor candidates being considered here include: R. B. McLernan, L. McLeod Gould, known for his writings under the name of "The Lounger"; Miss Helen Stewart, city librarian; C. K. Christian, a printer; Capt. Gadsden, Tom Dooley, J. Orford, President A. C. Pike of the Trades and Labor Council, E. S. Woodward, its secretary; Christian Siverts.

Will Not Be Candidate.

John Day announced last night that a large deputation of prominent citizens had waited on him at his home, 880 Madison Street, and asked him to run because of the stand that he had taken in public matters. Mr. Day, speaking in reply to the delegation, said that he was not yet in a position to enter public life.

No Official Action.

Vancouver, Oct. 26.—As an organization the Great War Veterans' Association will take no part in the approaching provincial general election. The organization does not propose to control the individual opinions of its members and there will be no commitment to the policy of any party by the Association as a whole. This was decided at a meeting of the provincial executive in this city, when the political situation was thoroughly discussed and a recommendation considered from the sub-executive. The recommendation of the sub-executive was adopted, all those in attendance being in accord with the action.

Sonny Horgan NOW HAS A LOVELY SKIN

"FOR eight months my boy's face was literally covered with Eczema" writes Mrs. Horgan of 188, Manning Avenue, Toronto. "It so pained and irritated him that he could not sleep. He was so badly disfigured that I felt ashamed to let him go out of the house. As nothing did him any good I took him to the Hospital. When the treatment there appeared to make the eczema worse I heard about Zam-Buk.

No More Eczema!

"So I got a supply of Zam-Buk, and applied it liberally and regularly. The pain disappeared and the irritation was wonderfully allayed. Soon healing began, and as I continued the Zam-Buk treatment the disease gradually disappeared until in time my boy's skin was perfectly clear, healthy and smooth."

Zam-Buk is equally good for Ulcers, Abscesses, Ringworm, Boils, Poisoned Wounds, Piles, Burns, Cuts and Scalds. All dealers at 50c a box. 3 for $1.25.

THANKS TO Zam-Buk

Over her drowsy eyes, the eyelids creep,
Tired of her play, her teddy-bear and dolls,
Healthy, content and happy—she falls asleep.

WAR VETERANS NAMED

Several permanent appointments in the Dominion Civil Service have been given to local veterans through the efforts of the G. W. V. A. Many of the comrades were very dissatisfied at the fact of having to wait so long for an appointment after passing the examinations. After communications with Ottawa by the G. W. V. A. the grievances were speedily adjusted, with the result that several local men have been placed satisfactorily in permanent positions.

FINANCE MINISTER EXPLAINS SLUMP IN VICTORY BONDS

Hon. John Hart Speaks to Kiwanis Club on Inflation of Currency

Addressing the Kiwanis Club assembled at luncheon to-day at the Dominion Hotel the Hon. John Hart, Provincial Minister of Finance, delivered a clear-cut explanation of the drop in the price of the Victory-loan bonds, which he attributed to an accumulation of reasons, chief among which was the abnormal inflation of currency, and the enormous expansion of credits, and the importation of foreign securities.

"You will remember the recent stabilizing effect, when the price of Victory bonds was ordered controlled, and central bond houses were provided for the clearance of bonds so that they should not be grouped too much in any one district. It was promised at the time that the price of Victory bonds would be maintained and would not fluctuate. This has not been done, and I want to explain to you the reasons that led up to the failure to keep up the price of those Victory bonds.

Heavy Inflation.

"Under the War Measures Act the inflation of paper currency was authorized to $35,000,000, providing that the Federal Government had a gold reserve dollar for dollar to cover that inflation. But this inflation has grown to $259,000,000 and I regret to say that the Federal Government has failed to see that that enormous inflation was covered dollar for dollar in gold or security.

"I want to show you the result of that inflation of currency on bond prices. The banks in this country invited us to buy bonds, with the result that small investors put their all into an investment that they now have to take what they can get on the market for it. In the United States the banking system was different, and the authorities created a federal state bank that would liquidate the notes of the banks of the smaller communities, giving them this credit. That kept the United States free from the overloading that has occurred in this country.

Firms went to their local institutions and placed bonds with them that were discounted by the federal state bank, thus giving the small community banks a chance to carry all. This made for the expansion of credit in the United States, and that had had a great effect upon the financial situation.

"In looking over the financial situation recently I predicted to the House that this dangerous situation would occur, from the inflation of currency, expansion of credits and importation of foreign investments and I regret to state that my predictions have come true.

"In your local papers to-day you will see the Pacific Great Eastern Railway quoted to yield seven and a quarter per cent., whereas the Victory Bond is only worth five and a half per cent. That has had the effect of attracting Canadian capital that should have been put to the development of the resources of the country. It has had the effect of attracting capital away from the lines of local development in Canada, and has aided largely in the deflation of the price of Victoria Bonds, to the detriment of the small holder, who invested, not from any sense of return, but from patriotic reasons, during the war to help their country.

"Many have said of the high cost of living and all commodities these days that it is due to the high wages asked by the working man, but after a study of the situation I have come to the opinion that that is not so, and that the high cost of living is due to the inflation of currency, expansion of credit and the adverse effect on Canada of the fact that all money passes through New York houses.

"Over 100,000,000 of dollars has been imported into Canada through investments in the last few months, that means that $100,000,000 has come through New York houses at the risk of exchange, and the exchange has risen to that extent, making a very serious attack on the Canadian dollar.

"I asked Sir Henry Drayton some time ago to put an embargo on the importation of securities, stating that a very serious situation would arise in Canada if that was not done. That has since been done, but it is not working, you will find, as I stated, outside securities on your markets to-day, attracting your capital away away from the development of the resources of the country, and dropping the price of Victory bonds still lower.

A Reflex Action.

"When the price of Victory bonds could no longer be kept up the investors that had believed the word of the government that the price would be maintained, chucked them back on the market, and they passed in great numbers into the hands of the central bond houses, who found that they were overloaded with the Victory Bond issue, and pushed them back on the people. This had to be done, but it has created a very serious condition indeed.

"I only see one remedy for the seriousness of the financial situation and that is in the steady decrease of the inflation of currency and the contraction of credits, together with the complete embargo on foreign securities. This must all be done gradually, sanely and slowly, so as not to distort the situation.

"We need capital in Canada, and we may not contract our credits rapidly, it must be done slowly and gradually, and in a sane manner. When the currency is deflated and the credits contracted, the price of things will come down, and not before.

"To right the serious disaster that might occur under these conditions we must see to the deflation of currency, contraction of credits and debarring of securities from outside, and this must be done slowly and in a sane and reasoning manner." On the conclusion of his address the Hon. John Hart was accorded a tremendous ovation. He had introduced his remarks with a message of congratulation to the Kiwanis Club on their activity for good in the community, and stated that if they never did anything else, they had justified their existence in the manner in which they had solicited funds for one of the local hospitals in a recent drive.

GETS TWO BOTTLES OF WHISKY RETURNED

Judge Lampman Makes Order For Henry Emert's Asthma

Judge Lampman in the County Court to-day issued an order that Henry Emert, of Store Street, should be given two bottles of whiskey for his asthma.

Police under Detective Carlow during the latter part of the Summer raided the Emert carpenter shop on Store Street, near the B. C. Electric car barns and found there cases of assorted whiskies and a wholesale supply of whiskey in a big distiller's wooden keg. Magistrate Jay found him guilty of having whiskey in a place other than a dwelling house.

Mr. Emert appealed to Judge Lampman, explaining that he lived in the carpenter shop and that he had the big shipment of whiskey for his asthma. Judge Lampman after going down and having a look at the shop reversed the conviction of the Magistrate.

C. L. Harrison, who prosecuted in both courts, and Ernest Miller, who defended Mr. Emert, argued the question of costs of the trial before the judge to-day and the question of who should get the whiskey.

Mr. Harrison said that as the prosecution had brought in the name of Detective Carlow, instead of the Crown, the city could not be saddled with the costs. Mr. Miller opposed this. An adjournment was given to allow Mr. Harrison to bring up a recent judgment of Judge Howey, of Vancouver.

Disposal of the large quantity of whiskey was left over until the costs are decided on. Mr. Miller, however, said it was rather hard that Mr. Emert should have to go without his whiskey all this time. The judge recalled that Mr. Emert was taking whiskey for his asthma.

"Give him one bottle of each of the two kinds of whiskey so that he can mix up any kind of a prescription he wants," said the judge in his ruling.

Routine By-laws Considered.—The City Council last night put through their preliminary readings three by-laws, amending the public health regulations, authorizing a sewer agreement with Esquimalt and changing the specifications for sewer piping weights. Alderman Tuesday considered that a hardship would be placed on some of the city's plumbing firms through the operation of the latter leaving on their hands quantities of pipe too light for the new regulations, but it was pointed out that there was a large field for its use in Saanich and Esquimalt.

First McKechnie Cup Game In Victoria, November 20

Arrangements were completed at a meeting of the Victoria Rugby Union held yesterday afternoon to hold the first match between Victoria and Vancouver representative teams for the McKechnie Cup on Saturday afternoon, November 20, at Oak Bay park. The second game between these fifteens will be held in Vancouver on December 11. Dates for the other two games of the series will be announced later.

Rugby enthusiasts will be glad to know that arrangements have been made for these games, as they attract a great deal of interest and are titbits of the Winter sporting season.

Both Teams Improve.

The battles for the British Columbia Rugby championship will be faster than any seen in the past, as both cities have greatly bolstered their clubs and have a wealth of material to pick from. Victoria's rep. team will show a wonderful improvement over last year's fifteen. Vancouver has also obtained a number of new players who will make a marked difference in the scoring ability of the team.

Victoria is to shortly select a fifteen which will be the pick of the city and capable of carrying the local colors to victory. Arrangements have been made to hold a test game at Oak Bay on Saturday afternoon, November 6, when two fifteens picked from the three city clubs will face one another for a survey by the selection committee. The rep. team will be announced after this match.

After the Rugby game here on November 20 a meeting of the British Columbia Rugby Union will be held when several important matters will be discussed.

Next Saturday's Game.

Next Saturday afternoon's game in the local series will be between the Vancouver Island Cardinals and the Wanderers. This will prove a tartar, as both teams have scored a victory and will be keen to get the edge in the race. Both teams are strong and well-balanced and will provide a great struggle.

FRENCH ATHLETE SETS NEW WORLD'S RECORD FOR 500-METRE RUN

Paris, Oct. 26.—Maurice Delivart, a French athlete, has broken the world's record for the 500-metre run, covering the distance in 1 min. 5 3-5 sec. The race was run at St. Cloud under the auspices of the Sporting Federation of France before a large crowd. Delivart was favored by having a fast cinder track for his effort. The former record was 1 min. 7 3-5 sec., and was held by F. Rajz of Hungary. It was made in 1913.

ICE HOCKEYISTS TO DISCUSS IMPORTANT BUSINESS TO-NIGHT

An important meeting of the Victoria Amateur Ice Hockey Association will be held this evening at 8 o'clock in the Y. M. C. A. Important business is to be discussed, including the election of officers and the association's attitude towards the amateur squabble which has been going on for some weeks past. All delegates to the association are requested to attend.

ANOTHER CHALLENGE HERE FOR MANN CUP

Ed. Christopher Received a Wire From Eastern Champs; Meeting To-night

Orangeville, Ontario, amateur lacrosse champions, are actually anxious to have a battle for the Mann Cup and they are so keen on their desire that they want to play this Fall. This morning Ed. Christopher, president of the Victoria Lacrosse Club, received a formal challenge for the coveted trophy. It came from Joe Lally, chairman of the Mann Cup trustees, and read as follows:

"Orangeville, champions of Ontario amateur lacrosse, wish to challenge for Mann Cup. Can you give dates this Fall?"

Kind Of Late.

"The challenge comes rather late," remarked President Christopher this morning. "We have given up lacrosse, but I have decided to call a meeting of the club to-night to consider the challenge."

The Victoria Lacrosse Club will meet this evening in the Metropolis Hotel to take action on the challenge. It is not likely that dates will be given this Winter, but tentative dates may be suggested for the Spring. The games could not be played before two weeks and that would mean the converting of the national Summer game into a Winter sport. Soccer and rugby now hold the boards and in a couple of weeks the amateurs and pros. will be getting ready for ice hockey. The Orangeville team is anxious for a chance to lift the cup but the Winter is not the proper time for the game. The prospects of slippery grounds makes it impossible to provide fast lacrosse as was demonstrated on Thanksgiving Day.

There is a season for all sports and no doubt the Victoria Lacrosse Club will suggest dates for the Spring, which will assure a better patronage at the games and also give the local players a chance to get into shape.

First Eastern Visit.

If the Orangeville team comes to play for the cup it will be the first time that Victorians have had the opportunity of witnessing an eastern lacrosse team in action against a local squad for the Mann Cup. It will make a great attraction if played at a seasonable time.

ALL BUT TWO MET HOCKEY PLAYERS SIGN FOR SEASON

Seattle, Oct. 26.—Seattle's championship hockey club of 1919-20 has signed all of its players for the Winter campaign with the exception of Roy Rickey and Charlie Tobin. Rickey is in Vancouver and will sign, it is said, as soon as he gets around to it. Tobin is not anxious to play another year and will probably not be back unless the club finds that it needs his services.

DEMPSEY WILL BOX IN MONTREAL NOV. 3

Montreal, Oct. 26.—Jack Dempsey, world's heavyweight champion, will box in Montreal early next month, in an exhibition bout at Mount Royal Arena. The date is definitely announced as November 3.

This will be Dempsey's first appearance in the ring since he defeated Billy Miske on Labor Day. Efforts are being made to have Dempsey meet Jack Renault, the French-Canadian heavyweight. Renault is willing, if the champion will agree.

CANADIAN CURLERS FOR SCOTTISH TOUR

Winnipeg, Oct. 26.—With the election of Wiliam McKenzie, of Welwyn, Sask., and Neil McDougall, of Port Arthur, Ont., to the two unfilled places in Manitoba's quota of the Canadian curling team to tour Scotland early next year, the line-up is complete. The team will consist of thirty-two players, ten each from Manitoba and Ontario, six from Montreal and Quebec and six from Nova Scotia.

Carpentier When a Boy Earned Ten Cents a Day

Georges Went to Work at 11 Years of Age Digging Coal Around Lens; His Rise to Fame Has Been Remarkable; Started As a Flyweight and Is Now After World's Heavyweight Title.

New York, Oct. 26.—Whether Georges Carpentier acted wisely when he selected Levinsky as an opponent in his first bout in this country is a matter of dispute. There are many who think that he would have done better if he had arranged to meet one of the slow moving heavies, such as Frank Moran. A man or Moran's type would have been a mark for the speedy Frenchman, who seems to have a wallop that will bring down any opponent who stops one with his chin. A quick knockout over Moran undoubtedly would make the general run of ring fans think that Carpentier might do the same thing to Dempsey.

Carpentier's career has been sensational from the start. He was born at Lens, in Northern France, in 1894. His parents were poor people of the mining region and when Georges was a child of eleven he was put to work as a pit boy, receiving ten cents a day for his labor.

Discovered.

Georges was about thirteen when Prof. Descamps, an athletic trainer and one of the first Frenchmen to take up boxing, discovered him. Under the coaching of Descamps, young Georges was a great success. Beginning as a flyweight, he won the championship of his country in each division as he grew older and heavier, so that he has held every title from flyweight to heavyweight.

One of the men Carpentier beat was Charles Ledoux, who now holds the bantamweight championship of France. Growing heavier, Carpentier climbed into the welterweight class and while in that division he encountered his first American opponent. This was Dixie Kid, a negro of championship calibre. The Kid knocked the youthful Carpentier out in five rounds, but this did not discourage him in the least, as he did not expect to beat so formidable a fighter.

Attracting Attention.

It was not until he grew into the middleweight class that Carpentier began to attract world-wide attention. His first important match was with Jim Sullivan, the champion of England, whom he knocked out in two rounds at Monte Carlo, winning the championship of Europe. In that same year he met Willie Lewis, an American, whom Carpentier had admired greatly and had taken as his model. Lewis was near the end of his rope then, but Carpentier had so much respect for his old tutor that the bout went the limit, the decision going to Carpentier on points.

Then came Carpentier's fights with Billy Papke and Frank Klaus. Papke stopped him in seventeen rounds and Klaus in nineteen. Technically, Georges lost to Klaus on a foul, Manager Descamps jumping into the ring when he saw that the youngster was over matched.

Toppled the Bombardier.

The bout with Klaus marked Carpentier's finish as a middleweight. Making weight had weakened him and brought about his defeat, so he decided not to make that mistake again. His next move was to make a match with Bombardier Wells for the heavyweight championship of Europe. English boxing followers thought he had lost his senses when this match was announced. Wells was a six-footer, a fine boxer, great hitter, champion of England and a prospective opponent for Jack Johnson for the world title.

Early in the bout it looked as though the English fans were right. Wells knocked his impetuous opponent down for counts of nine and had him on the verge of slumberland. But Carpentier stuck it out gamely. He beat a tatoo on the slender Englishman's body, causing him to writhe in pain, and then, when the tall Englishman's guard came down, Georges crossed a right to the jaw, knocking him cold in the fourth round.

The French Idol.

That victory made Georges a sensation in boxing circles the world over and in France a public idol. He followed up his victory over Wells by outpointing Jeff Smith, the American middleweight, in twenty rounds, and when Wells demanded another chance Georges consented without hesitation. This time Carpentier walked up and smacked the nervous Wells on the chin before the latter knew the fight was on.

In the following year Carpentier took part in a battle when he lost, but which gained him more prestige in America than any of his victories. His opponent on that occasion was Joe Jeannette, the American negro heavyweight. No American white hope cared to have anything to do with the Hoboken negro, but young Georges took him on and not only went the limit of fifteen rounds, but scored a knockdown over the husky negro.

Poor Old Gunboat.

Then came Carpentier's battle with Gunboat Smith, one of the leading white hopes. Carpentier was altogether too fast and clever for the hard-hitting Smith. In the fifth round Georges shot his famous right to the jaw and Smith was knocked cold. The bell saved him from being counted out and he was dragged to his corner and revived. In the next round Carpentier went to his knees, either from a blow or a slip—opinions differed as to how it happened. Smith was too groggy to observe that Carpentier was down. He struck the Frenchman and was disqualified.

Then came the war, cutting short Carpentier's ring career just when he was beginning to reach his best form. After serving with distinction in the great conflict, during which he was twice wounded, and thrice decorated for bravery, Carpentier returned to the ring broke, all his earnings having been invested in coal mines of Lens, which had been destroyed by the Germans.

The Comeback.

His first match was with Dick Smith, a third rater, whom he stopped in eight rounds. Carpentier was away off form after his long absence from the ring and his showing was not impressive on this occasion. But when he met Joe Beckett, champion of England, a few weeks later, Carpentier won the most spectacular victory of his entire career. Before the thick-necked, slow moving English champion knew what it was all about Georges stabbed him twice with a left, followed with his deadly right, straight and true from the shoulder, and England's champion went down and out, the whole proceeding taking but a few seconds.

The Frenchman is a spectacular performer. He has a world of speed and a knockout wallop. He is a handsome youth with graceful limbs and body. His striking personality has won him as many admirers as his fighting ability.

SAYS POST SERIES THROWN TO CALGARY

Bill Speas Intimates Fraud in Western League, When Regina Dropped Four Straight

Calgary, Oct. 26.—That Bill Speas, manager of the Regina Senators, believes that there was something crooked in the play-off series with Calgary, to settle the Western Canada League championship, is gathered from a story which Speas gives out in Portland, Oregon. Speas, who is back in Portland for the Winter months, and all the members of his team who claim Portland as their home, state they "were nicked for the series and blame several players for putting the games in the 'can.'"

According to Speas, an investigation is now going on to locate the guilty parties, but if there is, little has been heard of it up here. Regina cleaned up the first three games in Regina, and after going to Calgary had the count four to one. Then the Senators cracked wide open and the Bronchos took four straight from them. At that time, rumors were flying thick that several of the Regina players 'laid down.'"

ONLY THREE STRAIGHT

Through inadvertence it was made to appear in last evening's paper that the Sons of England had lost four straight games in the Senior Soccer League. The Sons have only lost three games.

Mrs. W. Groskleg, who was taken out to the Duncan Hospital on Friday, is progressing favorably.

On Saturday evening Mr. and Mrs. Frank Nason entertained at their houseboat in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Griffin, who are shortly leaving the lake, a most enjoyable evening was spent by dancing. At 12 o'clock a delicious supper was served and dancing continued until 2 o'clock.

CRITICS PRAISE "HUMORESQUE"

Dominion's Picture This Week Attracted Capacity Houses For First Night

The picture at the Dominion Theatre is aptly called "Humoresque" It combines all the pathos and laughter that is in Dvorak's famous melody.

"Humoresque" is a Fannie Hurst story, written with all her deep knowledge of human beings of the ordinary mould. The novel has been transformed with rare sympathy and understanding to the screen. Starting with the boyhood of a youngster in New York's Ghetto, born with two masterful passions in his breast—love for his mother and love for music—the photoplay shows the child later as youthful genius of the violin entertaining royalty and giving a huge concert in New York for his own people. Then comes the great sorrow that seems to forbid him ever playing a violin again. But in a wonderful manner the clouds are rolled by, and he and his faithful mother are made happy.

You cannot appreciate the appeal to the heart that this simple story makes until you have seen it. Last night's audience was profoundly affected. Alma Rubens, Vera Gordon, Gaston Glass and Dore Davidson in Frank Borzage has directed the film with rare skill. Cosmopolitan productions are responsible for the photoplay, which is released on the Paramount Artcraft schedule.

"Humoresque" will be shown at the Dominion all week.

PANTAGES

A falling timber starts Charles Ray on the road to fortune and happiness in his new Thomas H. Ince picture "Red Hot Dollars," which is being shown to-day at Pantages Theatre. The youthful star has the role of Tod Burke, a laborer in an iron foundry. He is only an insignificant cog in the big industrial machine until one day he saves his rich employer, Peter Garton, from the heavy timber when it crashes down from a travelling crane in the foundry. Tod himself is injured, and Garton, out of gratitude, has him nursed back to health. Then the ironmaster gives him an executive job in the iron works, so that Tod is transformed from a grimy toiler in overalls to a perfectly groomed youth behind a huge roll-top desk.

COLUMBIA

The conditions that resulted in the death of Czar Nicholas of Russia, if published reports of his death may be believed, are graphically depicted at the Columbia Theatre in "The Right of Happiness," a film story of the hour. The story opens in the St. Petersburg of nineteen years ago. The spectator evades the guards and enters the council chamber where the two notorious Russian agitators plan the world's destruction; he sees a young girl start out for America with a commission to wreck American industry. How she failed; yet won—is just one of the themes interwoven with intense dramatic emphasis in "The Right of Happiness." Dorothy Phillips, whose work in "The Heart of Humanity" was another Vimy Ridge for the Canadians, is the star of this unusual photodrama. William Stowell, who supported her in "The Heart of Humanity" also plays opposite in "The Right to Happiness." The following popular Universal players are also members of the supporting cast: Robert Andersen, Hector Sarne, Henry Barrows, Winter Hall, Margaret Mann, Stanhope Wheatcroft, Alma Bennett.

VARIETY

"Are You Legally Married?" the photoplay now being run at the Variety Theatre is one of the most enlightening that has ever been shown on a local screen, exposing as it does the chaotic and ridiculous condition of the marital laws of the different states. The story is based on facts brought about by two years of careful research on the part of Miles Dobson, B. A., into the marital and divorce laws in force throughout the United States. The Supreme Court of the United States, at Washington, D. C., has handed down a decision that makes bigamists of hundreds of thousands of men and women who think themselves lawfully married; it puts the stigma of illegitimacy on more than half a million children, and so confuses property interests that many persons are in possession of property for which they have paid and to which they have no legal title. This decision is handed down in the case of Haddock vs. Haddock, and is upheld by the Supreme Courts of all of the several states who have tried such cases.

PRINCESS

The play now in preparation for production to-morrow at the Princess Theatre is "The Unkissed Bride" a comedy in three acts with numberless clever lines and dozens of screamingly funny situations.

This clever sparkling comedy was one of the most successful comedies ever produced during Miss Page and Mr. Aldenn's long stay in Vancouver, B. C., at the Empress Theatre Stock, and is not being taken simply on some ones "say so" but the Mildred Page Players know the play and its merits and can recommend it highly to their patrons. The entire cast will be seen at their best and the stage settings promise something unique and entirely different from anything produced at the Princess this season. This is the first comedy produced in five weeks at the Princess Theatre and there will doubtless be a good many who will welcome a rollicking fun feast for a change.

There was a mistake in the Princess Theatre add. for last week where the prices were printed as follows: 30 cents to $1.50. The prices of tickets for this company are and always have been from 30 cents to $1.10 including war tax.

"CHU CHIN CHOW" COMING.

At the Royal Victoria Theatre, Victoria, commencing Tuesday Night, November 9, F. Ray Comstock and Morris Gest will offer Oscar Asche's wonder play of the Orient "Chu Chin Chow," for an engagement of five days with matinees on Wednesday and Saturday. It is said that owing to the enormous size of this production and the fact that it will require twenty-four hours to make the initial setting, the Monday night performance was cancelled.

"Chu Chin Chow" is an animated fable of ancient Bagdad, with a company of three hundred people, and fourteen bewildering scenes of colorful splendor. It was originally written and produced at His Majest's Theatre, London, by Oscar Asche on August 21, 1916, and is now in the fifth year of its run which has surpassed all known records for continuous playing. The coming of this attraction to Victoria will be an event of special notice as never before in the history of the American stage has so large an organization been sent on tour.

EX-SOLDIER ARTISTS SCORE INSTANT HIT

"Camouflage" at Royal Victoria Delight Big Audience; To Repeat To-night

"Camouflage" is the name happily chosen by the "Maple Leafs" the concert party of the 4th Canadian Division, for their excellent revue, which gave its opening performance at the Royal Victoria Theatre last evening and is to be repeated this evening. The keynote of the production is indeed "Camouflage," for its coy and winsome soubrettes who wear the most ravishing creations and display all the arts of coquetry considered the prerogative of the gentler sex are in every day life mere men—in fact, men who shared in the great adventure during the recent war, for every artist in the "Maple Leafs" saw service in France with the 4th Division C. E. F.

From the rise of the curtain and its introduction to the company in their stirring opening chorus, to the final sketch "Ginger," the whole show went with a fine swing and verve. The stage settings are most attractive and the costumes gorgeous. The absence of any hitches or waits between the various turns reflected considerable credit on the stage management, and added much to the success of the production.

Ormond Perley, Harry Ashton, Leslie Benson and Jimmy Graham, as fascinating soubrettes captivated the susceptibilities of the audience and displayed a bewildering succession of wonderful gowns with all the grace and chic of professional mannequins. Leslie Benson appeared as an alluring blonde in a sentiment number, "I'm All of Aooh," while reminiscences of Theda Bara were conjured up by Ormond Perley who sang "Just Dance, My Dear," and, later in the programme, performed sinuous and graceful evolutions in a sensuous Oriental dance, and also danced a Spanish fandango with verve and grace.

Pat Rafferty, a rather diminutive Irishman, was responsible for much of the fun of the production and his antics and clever humor evoked a continual roar of laughter. Among his most amusing numbers was his tale of woe in "Nobody Noticed Me," "Six Days' Leave," relating the troubles of a cootie-infested private, while as Ginger in the final sketch his gaucheries and humorous sallies were among the funniest in the revue. Sam Birch, another clever comedian, displayed professional ease in his interpretation of a quack medicine vendor selling a "positive cure" for all ills, introducing into his clever patter topical references to the Government, the $2,000 gratuity, and the army authorities.

A hearty welcome was given to Ernest Petch, the well-known local singer, who appeared in the guise of a Hebrew comedian with great success. Bobby Scott, the possessor of a fine baritone of pleasing quality, was the principal figure in a delightful scene depicting four girls seated on swings, whose ropes were hung with varicolored lights. His solo number, "That Old-fashioned Mother of Mine," was one of the most popular of the more serious numbers.

A charming scene of the "patches and powder" period introduced the whole company in the ever-popular song, "The Keys of Heaven," the artistes being recalled several times, so enthusiastic was its reception.

The various allusions to life in the army in France appealed strongly to the returned men in the audience, who alone understood the mysterious references to "Mademoiselle from Armentieres," the "Waac," who announced that after many vicissitudes she was a good girl now, and to the troubles of the private, who strove to make Boston Cream out of Tickler's jam. Altogether the revue is one of the best entertainments ever brought to this city and one can only say that if the "Maple Leafs" are criterion of the class of talent seen behind the front line trenches then the country owes them a debt of gratitude for the hours of pleasure they must have given to many war-weary, mud-stained soldiers.

WORKMAN WAS INJURED AT CASSIDY

Cassidy, Oct. 26.—James McEwan, fifty-four, a laborer, employed by the Granby Company, met with a serious accident yesterday. While repairing a flume part of the structure collapsed, falling on McEwan, who sustained severe scalp wounds, broken ribs, a fractured collar bone and a broken wrist. The injured man was rushed to the local hospital, but as his injuries were found to be of such a serious nature he was subsequently removed to the hospital in Nanaimo.

In a football game on Sunday the Granby team lost to Cumberland by 2 goals to 1.

DANCE WAS HELD AT COWICHAN STATION

The Sir Clive Phillips-Wolley Chapter, I. O. D. E., gave a most successful dance on Trafalgar Day, in the C. A. A. C. Hall, Cowichan Station.

Between 180 and 190 persons were present and it is hoped that the proceeds, which will go to the Navy League, will overtop the $100 mark.

The prospect of dancing to the strains of Heaton's Orchestra was largely responsible for the numbers of people who came from distant points in the district, several motor parties making the trip up from Shawnigan Lake.

The floor was in perfect shape, and the orchestra was allowed the shortest possible amount of rest between dances.

The decorations were done in appropriate nautical style. Naval flags were hung across the ceiling, and an enormous anchor, guarded on either side by life belts and oars, held the centre of the wall space at one end of the hall.

Festoons of ivy covered the windows, and the side walls were hung with beautiful animal skins, the whole making a particularly pleasing background for the ever-moving throng of dancers.

For those who preferred cards to dancing, bridge tables were arranged on the stage, under the direction of Mrs. M. Read.

Supper consisting of delicious sandwiches of all sorts, cakes and coffee, was served under the management of Mrs. H. P. Tooker.

New School.

Nanaimo—The new public school in Cedar district is approaching completion and will be ready for use after the Christmas holidays. A third teacher is likely to be required.

Mill Closes Down.

Courtenay.—As part of the policy of many lumber concerns in B. C. to restrict production the Courtenay Lumber Company ceased cutting lumber on Monday and the plaining mill will be closed down by to-day (Thursay).

It is the full intention of the company to re-commence operations on January the first.—Comox Argus.

Victorians Buy Land.

Courtenay.—There are many investors from other provinces and other parts of the province still coming to Courtenay to take up their residence. Capt. Geo. C. Denham who served overseas in the Imperials has bought Mrs. Dillman's house in the Orchard. Messrs. Eaton and Bennett of Victoria have purchased an acre of Mr. Eric Duncan's subdivision on the Union Bay road and intend building there. The deal was put through by Mr. Biscoe.

Admits Modern Foods Lack Sufficient Phosphate

Why 40% of Men and Women To-day Are Without Sufficient Nerve Force, Energy, Ambition and Endurance

Thin People Need It Most and Plenty of It.

Just one or two little tablets of real organic phosphate dispensed in drug stores under the name of Bitro-Phosphate taken with each meal is probably just what you need to cause you to jump out of bed in the morning eager for the industrial battle of the day.

If you could swallow the yolks of a dozen eggs every day for a month, it might give you all the phosphate your starving nerves are craving for, but the cost forbids.

Phosphate is an important part of every nerve cell, every blood cell and every other cell in the body.

Even the bones must have an abundant supply.

If you are thin, weak, nervous, run-down, have no confidence in your ability to succeed in life and lack ambition, endurance and perseverance, its probably because the food you eat isn't giving you enough phosphate, and that is all that is the matter with you.

Referring to the above drawback in the make-up of any man or woman, Dr. Joseph D. Harrigan, a brilliant medical specialist, formerly visiting specialist North Eastern Dispensary, New York City, says.

"Common sense, as well as experience, should teach those who suffer that the most logical and sensible thing to do is to put into their systems the substance that is lacking, and that is the organic phosphate—Bitro-Phosphate."

Nearly every druggist dispenses Bitro-Phosphate in the original package, and as the cost is little, even since organic phosphate as advanced in price, thousands are availing themselves of the opportunity to increase nerve force, put on weight and grow sturdy and healthy.

PRINCIPAL OF M'GILL SPEAKS TO GRADUATES HERE

Gen. Sir Arthur Currie Tells of Campaign For $5,000,000 to Commence November

"It is with delight that we gather tonight to greet an old fellow townsman, Sir Arthur Currie, who led our citizen soldiers on the battlefields of France and Flanders, and who served with such distinction that he was decorated for his services by a grateful King and Country," stated A. E. Foreman in introducing General Sir Arthur Currie to the Victoria branch of the McGill Graduates, assembled in the Empress Hotel last night.

"Now that peace has been declared, Sir Arthur has been given the greatest honor that could have been accorded to him, that of watching and guiding the interests of the greatest seat of education in Canada, McGill University. That he will apply to the problem confronting him all the skill and ability that made him a leader of soldiers is evident, and we are gathered here to-night to hear of the problem affecting the expansion of McGill," concluded Mr. Foreman, introducing Sir Arthur Currie.

McGill Principal Speaks.

"Mr. President, friends and well-wishers of McGill, I am not going to inflict on you any formal address. I want, before I outline the McGill campaign to you, to take this opportunity of thanking you for the many letters of congratulation I received on my appointment to the principalship of McGill. I need not say how much they encouraged me, and gave me hope that I could be of use in this great sphere of work.

"You will quite appreciate it is a great horse I am attempting to ride, and in that I am handicapped by a lack of university education. I think I realize all the more fully for that very reason, the value of a university education.

"I say to you McGillians that I fully appreciate the glorious traditions of your University, and I will do my very best to see that those traditions are honored in perpetuity. To do this I must get the best man at the head of each department in the University.

"I was not the best soldier in the Canadian Corps, by any means, but I always endeavored to get the best man at the head of each section of the corps. I had sense enough to do that, and I will try here to get the very best man at the head of each department of McGill.

More Money Necessary.

"The day has come in the life of our University when we must have more money; there are over 2,500 students annually at McGill now, and they are paying the highest fees of any university on the continent, and even at that they are not paying a third of what it is costing to train them.

"Our salaries to professors and lecturers are ridiculous, a professor is now getting in the neighborhood of $3,000 a year, or less than the driver of a locomotive gets for his work. An ordinary lecturer would be very glad to get the usual salary of the janitor of a building in town. One associate professor, who has been connected with the University for eleven years, is now getting $1,700 per annum.

"Consequently we stand in danger of losing our very best men, other Universities are anxious to obtain their distinguished services, and we cannot afford to pay them the salary to which they are entitled. I would like to see professors getting at least from $5,000 to $6,000 per anum, but we cannot at the present stage afford that.

"Again unless we have a satisfied staff, we cannot always be certain of the soundness of their teachings. Men who are underpaid are very much inclined to turn to radicalism, and that would be a very dangerous thing for our University.

Size of Staff.

"There are about 500 on the staff at McGill, and it will require therefore about $250,000 a year to pay the correct salary, or say six per cent. on four millions. We must raise at least three millions to put our professors on an adequate footing, and then there is the increased cost of equipment, fuel, and other incidentals, all of which have grown beyond recognition in the latter years.

"We are cramped for room with 2,500 students, who are now split into two groups for instructional purposes, that means but two lectures a week on any subject, and that is not fair to the student or to the University.

"Take the case of the library, in 1892 there were 35,000 books on the shelves, now there are over 166,000, and about 125,000 pamphlets. Accommodation cannot be found for the books on the shelves of the library, and our catalogue is nearly a year behind, which too is not fair to the professors or to the student body.

"McGill spends $7,000 on its library yearly, while the University of Toronto and the great American universities are spending up to $20,000 annually on their libraries. Then there is the Rockefeller gift of $5,000,000 for educational purposes, some of which is to be spent in Canada, but there are strings to that, we will have to build new buildings, and we have not the money to do that with.

Athletic Training

"Then we need a gymnasium, and I attach great importance to our athletic training. I think in Canada we do not pay enough attention to athletics, and we play far too many of our games from the side-lines. A gymnasium would cost between $600,000 to $750,000.

"Another great drawback that must soon be remedied is our lack of housing accommodation for the outside students. Only some 400 are accommodated by the Greek Letter Societies, while the remainder have to seek accommodation outside in Montreal. That splits up the student body, who see each other but a few minutes a day in class rooms, and destroys all efforts at esprit de corps. We should have ample accommodation for the entire student body, and foster esprit de corps, and community spirit, with the glorious traditions of old McGill.

"With all this we should get at least $5,000,000 and we are out for more, we would like to get $10,000,000, and I have no hesitation in saying that I think we will raise that amount without trouble. I think if every graduate knew it cost from two to five times what he paid in fees to give him his degrees, there would be no trouble in raising the funds to carry on McGill along proper lines.

"I have no hesitation in appealing to graduates, who I think will be only too proud to help their Alma Mater, where possible.

Served Their Country

"During the war period McGill built up a deficit of some $500,000, and speaking of the war reminds me, some 850 graduates of McGill rest in France, 600 wounded, and 350 received honors. You will be glad to know that the very first two V. C. won by Canadians in this war went to McGill graduates (applause) one Dr. Scrimger, 14th Battalion, 3rd Brigade, and the other Fischer, B. Sc., McGill. We must thank the medical department for keeping McGill alive during the last period.

"It is only by working together, hard and earnestly, with a definite purpose in view that McGill will hold her place," he concluded, "and what we want to turn out is men of not only knowledge but of character."

Col. Molson

Lieut.-Col. Molson, on the board of governors of McGill here recited some of the organization measures that had been prepared for the coming drive for $5,000,000 for McGill.

"McGill never appealed to the public, with one exception, since 1912, when it raised $1,600,000 in three days—now in this campaign we are out for at least $5,000,000 to carry on the work of McGill University.

"We have a board of governors of twenty-five, a citizens' committee of 150, a campaign committee under the leadership of E. W. Beatty, President of the C. P. R., a publicity committee under Lord Atholston, proprietor of The Montreal Star, a special names committee of which Sir Herbert Ames is head—to get after those known to be in a position to afford a generous contribution to their Alma Mater in her hour of need, the teams committee under Charlie Neill, general manager of the Royal Bank of Canada in Montreal.

"I feel sure that there will not be one in Canada who has not heard of the campaign on November 15, and I think we will experience no difficulty in raising the funds necessary to successfully carry on the work of old McGill. I forgot to tell you of the Central Graduates' Committee under Graham Drinkwater, and graduate committees in every city. I hope you will have one here before we leave. The objective of the graduates committees is $1,000,000 out of the $5,000,000 we are after. Sir Campbell Stuart is to organize Canadians in England, many of whom will only be too glad to help their Alma Mater. It is also hoped that all Alumnaes will get together and help the graduates."

Dr. Kenning, secretary of the Victoria Committee of McGill Graduates here made a report on the work of his committee.

LECTURE SERIES BY LIEUT. CLEARIHUE BEGAN MONDAY

A fascinating lecture was heard by an appreciative audience at the G.W.V.A. club last night, when Lieut. J. B. Clearihue delivered the first of a series of four lectures to be delivered at the above club rooms for four consecutive Mondays. The subject of the lecture was "Scientific Management of Industry, in which Mr. Clearihue pointed out a waste and lack of production that is inconsistent with the up to date machinery of the present century, and explained in a very lucid manner how a minimum of effort may result in a maximum of production, and reap a greater profit for the employer and less work and more pay for the worker Mr. Clearihue imparts a good deal of valuable information in a few words and the lecture next Monday will be on the efficiency of business.

Killed by Blood Poisoning

Used an old razor for paring his corns. Foolish, because a 25c bottle of Putnam's Corn Extractor will cure all the corns in a family for a year. Safe, because purely vegetable. Use only Putnam's Extractor, 25c. at all dealers.

UNITED VETERANS HOLD POLITICAL SESSION HERE

"The returned men, with their women's vote, control the destinies of the Province," stated J. H. Hawthornthwaite last night at a political session of the Grand Army of United Veterans.

Major R. J. Burde, M.C., was to have furnished the political food of the evening, but failed to arrive, the president R. P. McLernan, in a brief address foretold that the activities of the G.A.U.V. political interests would be manifold and lively.

Councillor Tom Dooley and Miss Helen Stewart spoke.

Discontent with government action was expressed by Comrade Christian, who stated that his organization was prepared and before the week was out would launch a campaign that would make them all sit up."

What better time than this for another change—one that will add materially to your comfort and convenience?

THE WOMAN'S SPHERE.

To the Editor.—There were not wanting those who feared when the woman came to have the vote; she might be in some danger of losing her "bright empire"—she certainly wasted no time in bringing that about.

And while the woman who voted for "more booze" fell far short of measuring up to the high ideals expected of her, when given the vote, she undoubtedly lived up to the worst traditions of her great ancestor when brought face to face with the forbidden fruit. It is sad to think that so many women in British Columbia were ready at the first opportunity to part with their man-given birthright for a miserable mess of toddy.

It is sadder to contemplate that there are so many women in this Province seized with a lime-kiln thirst that could not be assuaged with an eight-ounce prescription.

And sadder still to know, that so few women are ready to yield "self" for the claims of "service" to humanity, and to witness so much selfish shirking of responsibility towards others—a callous repetition of the world-old cry, "Am I my brother's keeper?" They refused to listen to the little bird who brought to them a message from Heaven, "Whatsoever a man soweth that shall he also reap." But they fell for the serpent (in the guise of an Evangel of Liberty) who told them if they sowed "more booze" they would surely reap temperance. They were not exactly "fooled" by those arguments, for nature was ahead of them.

I sincerely hope that a liquor law may be so framed that no woman with a family to care for in a whisky-sodden country will ever be troubled with the following reflections:

"The thorns which I have reaped are of the tree I planted—they have torn me, and I bleed.
"I should have known what fruit would spring from such a seed."

"WHERE IS VICTORIA, B. C.?"

To the Editor.—On my recent visit to England I found the same hopeless confusion and ignorance regarding the geographical position of Victoria that exists in Eastern Canada, and which seriously hurts the good name of Victoria climatically, residentially and financially. There have been letters in our papers in the past from business firms of Victoria stating the trouble they suffer from in this connection. A too common idea is that we are near Vancouver City on the Mainland, and share its inferior climate. When one mentions Victoria, B. C., a common reply is: "Oh! you have a great deal of rain and fog, have you not?" It is not realized that Victoria is eighty-three miles south of Vancouver City, is itself on Vancouver Island, and is the capital city of British Columbia.

Our remedy has so far seemed hopeless, and it is too late for the C. P. R. to restore our stolen property, which with their intelligent foresight they appropriated for their terminal city, although the name "Vancouver" has no connection whatever with the Mainland, the English discoverer, Capt. Vancouver, having never set foot on the Mainland of British Columbia. To add to the confusion, there was already, and still is, a town valled "Vancouver," about 140 miles south of us in Washington State, founded by the Hudson's Bay Company before they founded Victoria in 1843. But looking at the matter from England—and distance often helps us to get a better general view of a subject—and seeking a remedy, it occurred to me that it would very considerably help us if in the case of Victoria, as well as all other post offices on Vancouver Island, we drop "British Columbia" from our address altogether, and use "Vancouver Island" instead; and to do this effectively, the Postmaster-General, after having our trouble fully explained to him, must be asked to recognize "V. I." in place of "B. C." as an address, and to have all Island postmarks so altered. Postmarks are a valuable advertising medium; and we ourselves in writing our address at head of our letters should always write "Vancouver Island" in full, or have it printed; the number of letters is the same as in "British Columbia." In time this will have a wonderful effect in impressing our geographical position on the public wherever our letters go, and it will be known that Vancouver Island is of considerable size, two-thirds the acreage of Scotland, and the same acreage as the Province of Nova Scotia, which holds a similar position on the Atlantic, though it is not quite an island; and that Victoria, V. I., is not an annex of the City of Vancouver. Incidentally, we may remember that at one time Vancouver Island was a colony by itself, and British Columbia was another.

If there is anything in my suggestion, I hope the matter will not be allowed to rest here. A letter from an individual can alone do nothing. Victoria must wake up; and the Board of Trade, the City Council, the Tourist Association, and other bodies, backed up by the other towns of Vancouver Island, must take the matter up, and our representatives in Parliament can help us.

KIWANIANS HOLD HALLOWE'EN LUNCH

Dr. Vye Captures Record For Lone Management of Entertainment

To-day was Hallowe'en Day with the Kiwanis Club, and the special entertainment committee, which Dr. Vye, as the lone "V" of that organization, expanded itself into a burst of energy that completely put the record holding "macs" out of the running for entertainment. The piece de resistance of the "V" was the address on Victory Bonds by the Hon. John Hart. The entertainment was added to in no uncertain manner by talented renditions from Messrs. North, Percy Richardson, Jensen and Norman Hill. The luncheon room was decorated with the appropriate accompaniment of black cats and pumpkins, and the tables presented a festive air with festoons of colored ribbon. The walls were the resting places of six enormous black cats, who appeared in the moment of howling, with mouth agape.

A special menu card had been drawn up, in which the elusive "V" appeared almost alone. It was a very vivacious gathering that joined hands at the four large tables, and for once the management had to provide extra accommodation for the members that assembled.

Dr. Howard Millar won the first attendance prize, while two others were given as consolations. The head table was adorned with an immense pumpkin, that presented a gay air with electrically lighted eyes, and other features aglow in the ghastly radiance of the reddish brown pumpkin case. From the maw of this ferocious creature Dr. Vye fished for three attendance prizes with excellent results. A Hallowe'en special that prove of immense popularity was the inclusions of several large boxes of apples, provided by a Kiwanian for the occasion. Dr. Vye, as lone management committee for this week's entertainment, was heartily congratulated by the former holders of the record—the 'macs"—for his successful efforts.

MANY LAWYERS IN JEPSON CASE

Dozen and One-half Plaintiffs When Judge Opens Hearing To-day

Lawyers from all parts of the city and in large numbers gathered before Judge Lampman in the County Court to-day to see what is to be done with the remains of the defunct Suburban Motor Transportation Co.

First, W. B. Monteith asked the judge to be allowed to have Turner, Beeton & Co. added to the plaintiffs. The judge said that there were about fifteen already.

"Yes, it is rather difficult to tell who are in and who are not in," said Mr. Monteith.

As soon as the judge allowed Turner, Beeton & Co. in, Mr. Monteith asked that the Brackman-Ker Milling Co. should be also admitted. The judge agreed.

Lawyers representing each of the dozen and one-half plaintiffs formed a half circle from one side of the court to the other when the trial opened. Among those present were: M. B Jackson, K.C., defending T. W. Tedcastle, and those for the other side: Cleeve White, J. Y. Copeman, John L. Clay, Ralph Reid, Ernest McIntyre, W. B. Monteith, Nairn Robertson, Mr. Leighton and Sheriff Richards and Deputy Sheriff Sangster.

Mr. Sangster went in the box and told how he seized for the judgment creditors the three automobiles of the Transportation Company, after finding them in the Begg Garage, where they were supposed to be held for the Griffith Co., who lent money on them.

Mr. Tedcastle was put in the box by his lawyers, but Judge Lampman took him over and asked him a number of questions to find out what was the real trouble with the company. In reply to the judge Mr. Tedcastle swore that he had advanced $2,000 to go into the partnership with Dr. Jepson's wife, and besides had put an Overland car into the partnership. Later he advanced between $7,000 and $8,000 to the company, but he has never drawn one solitary penny out of the company.

"I have lost everything I put in," said Mr. Tedcastle. "When Dr. Jepson came here from Manitoba I befriended both him and his wife. I paid the freight on their furniture and gave them $40. I did not understand that Dr. Jepson was engineering all these transportation deals."

Judge Lampman and the dozen and one-half lawyers are hearing more details this afternoon.

Wheat had an advance of 8 cents from the low, while Dec. corn touched 82½, up 2⅝ cents. Short covering and a tremendous export business were responsible for the advance to-day, according to reports. Teach the Children to Save Habits are acquired early in life. Children, who are taught the value of money and the habit of saving, grow up into good business men and capable women.

The easiest way to teach children to save, is to start a Savings Account for each child ($1.00 each is sufficient). After a child has saved another dollar to make an additional deposit, he or she will have a better appreciation of just what a dollar stands for, and how much work and self-denial it represents.

WILL LAY CITY'S PLIGHT BEFORE POLITICAL LIGHTS

City Council to Endeavor to Pledge Candidates to Give Concessions If Elected

Claiming that the Government of the Province had hitherto declined all attempts to secure for the city additional sources of revenue, and had received an income from automobile licenses and amusement taxes which should rightfully belong to Victoria, Alderman Sargent last night introduced the following resolution to the City Council, and without any discussion other than a cordial support from Alderman Fullerton the suggestion was adopted, the seconder of the resolution being Alderman Patrick:

The Resolution.

The text of the resolution follows:

"Whereas, it has been generally known for some considerable time that this city's sources of revenue are altogether inadequate to provide sufficient funds to meet the fixed charges for the indebtedness of the corporation and defray the continually increasing costs of constructing and maintaining the streets and bridges, establishing and maintaining the schools, hospitals, the police and fire departments and the many other necessary items of expenditure which go to make up the city's services to the public.

"And whereas, these unsatisfactory conditions have repeatedly been explained to the Government of the Province and the plea made for those additional sources of revenue which naturally belong to the city and now appropriated by the Province, and so far these pleas have not resulted in any tangible relief:

To Place Issue Squarely.

"And whereas, the tax sale of last year from which nearly 700 properties reverted to the city and the tax sale of this present year, from which many, if not more, properties are sure to revert to the city, thus materially decreasing the assessment and automatically increasing the taxation of the remaining properties, all point to the unavoidable disaster which must follow if the present plan of endeavoring to collect from land sufficient taxes to meet all the requirements of the city if persisted in:

"Therefore, be it resolved that as it is at this particular time of vital importance to Victoria and its citizens, the Council should place before the political parties which will be contending at the approaching election for the right to govern the Province, the grave and threatening menace which confronts our city with a view to securing the necessary relief at the first session of the new Legislature.

"And be it further resolved that His Worship the Mayor arrange with the leaders of those parties a time or times in the early days of the coming month when these matters so important to the welfare of Victoria may be placed before them, and that he also communicate with the councils of the other cities of the Island and Mainland, which doubtless have similar difficulties to our own, inviting them to join with this Council n a united appeal for substantial relief."

A Vital Matter

Alderman Sargent said this matter was one of vital interest to the city, whose Council had taken the question up with the Government many times without securing any relief. "It will be folly and very unfair to our citizens if we allow a general election to take place without our position being fully laid before the gentlemen appealing for the privilege of governing the Province, and also fully explained to the electors," he said.

Alderman Sargent said the question was even more important to Vancouver than it is to Victoria, and then explained that at the beginning of the past year, with an eye to keeping the probable tax sale list as low as possible, the Council had struck the rate at 26 mills with the aid of a transfer of $92,000 from another fund. He asserted that a 26-mill rate was not illuminative of the city's real cost of administration, as without that financial action the rate would have been at least 2 mills higher.

He said that with the taking over this year of a further 700 parcels of land and thereby withdrawing from the assessment roll about $1,500,000 of taxable property, nearly $10,000 was lost to the tax collections for next year.

Civic Revenue Elsewhere

"Knowing the important position of the Legislature at this time, the Council would not be doing its duty if it did not take some action, and the course suggested in this motion appeals to me," said the Alderman, and then quoted facts relating to the sources of revenue enjoyed by municipalities in other Provinces. British Columbia had only taxes on real property, roads and license fees. Alberta taxed real property, personal property, business, income, and had license fees. Saskatchewan enjoyed taxes on property, business, income, special franchises and licenses. Manitoba had real and personal property taxes, income, poll and trade taxes. Nova Scotia taxed real and personal property, had a poll tax and trade tax. Quebec had taxes on land, merchandise, licenses and poll taxes. Ontario taxed real property and business, gross receipts of telephone and telegraph companies, trade licenses. Toronto had an additional income tax.

"The motor and amusement taxes which go to swell the Provincial revenues are a direct result of our municipal facilities such as the $8,000,000 roads system, and all we are allowed to do is to add to the burden of the amusement tax and collect a $5 head tax," was his comment.

"My idea is that if we and the other cities co-operate and arrive at a common basis of appeal we can get a practical relief to our troubles by allocation of additional revenue sources or other assistance.

Lessened Expenditures

"For the Government to take over the schools and hospitals, and keep the revenues they have already appropriated, would be my idea of what would be fair, and the cities might then carry on with the revenue they have.

"We would fail in our duty to our people if we did not take this opportunity and make representations to those appealing to govern the country," was Alderman Sargent's conclusion.

Alderman Fullerton said: "When we went to the Premier regarding the amusement tax he admitted the Government had not done anything to introduce the pictures in our midst and we had a good cause for complaint.

"Now is the time to bring the matter before the people, all too often these governmental gentlemen forget all promises when they are in office. If we keep the matter before the people we may get what we are justly entitled to."

The resolution was then adopted without demur.

COUNCIL ADOPTS AGREEMENT FOR HIGHER CAR FARES

City Fathers Authorize Mayor Porter to Sign Agreement With B. C. E. Co., Ltd.

The City Council last night authorized Mayor Porter to sign the agreement between the city of Victoria and the British Columbia Electric Railway Company, providing for the new six-cent car fare with transfer rights, the reduction of the household lighting rate to a seven-cent basis, the elimination of jitney competition and the maintenance of certain portions of the streets by the railway company.

An unexpected plum fell to the city when the Legislative Committee called to the attention of the Council the terms covering the issuance of school children's tickets. The original provision was that ten tickets should be sold to children for 30 cents. The amended scheme provides for the sale to public school children only of ten tickets for 25 cents.

Alderman Sargent reported that the company would attach a letter to the agreement extending this provision to children attending the city's private schools and the university school, the intention being to eliminate from those benefiting from this special concession older students taking business courses at commercial schools.

To Meet Proviso.

Alderman Sargent pointed out that as the terms of the company's charter prevented inclusion in the agreement of transfer privileges to points outside the city limits, a letter permitting such use of transfers would also be attached to the agreements.

Alderman Fullerton protested that no provision was made for the protection of non-competitive jitney lines, but it was stated by City Solicitor Pringle that these are allowed to operate under the terms of the special act passed by the Legislature at its last session, which are acknowledged by the company.

A bylaw giving effect to the agreement will be prepared and passed as soon as possible, and it is expected that the new regulations should be in effect by December 1.

PROTESTS COUNCIL SHOULD HOLD FINAL PAYMENT LONGER

Alderman Would Withhold Final Payment on Bridge Substructure

When the report of the special committee which examined the specifications for the Johnson Street bridge substructure last night came before the City Council for endorsation, Alderman Fullerton was anxious to secure extension of the date of final payment on the contract from the sixty days proposed by Engineer Preston to four months. He claimed that, as the contract was a big matter, and the weight of the superstructure and traffic a serious burden, it was not wisdom to complete payment and release the contractor so soon after completion of the work. He thought a practical solution would be for the city to pay some bonus or interest on the deferred balance.

Alderman Sargent thought the point well taken, as if the contractor were paid in full there would no longer be any redress to the Council if faults developed. He thought that perhaps a delay until sixty days after the bridge was in operation might be of value.

At the same time he jointed out the time which would elapse between completion of this work and the commencement of loading strains would be too long for any four months or other short term delay in the last payment to be of benefit.

Alderman Dinsdale pointed out that a practical expert consultant would be available and any lengthy delay in payment was therefore unnecessary.

Alderman Patrick thought a lengthy holdback was neither fair nor any value to the city. "I know of a bridge that lasted four years, and still went down," he said.

City Engineer Preston commented: "If nothing should happen within sixty days then the work might just as well last sixty years without trouble developing."

Alderman Fullerton reiterated his arguments, maintaining the city should take no chances, and moved the last payment be withheld for four months.

Alderman Johns commented: "If the work stays put for a month it will certainly stay until the bridge is on top of the concrete." Alderman Andros agreed and none seconding Alderman Fullerton's motion, the report was received and filed.
